STATESMEN FIGHT.

Mr. Hall Slugs Mr. Money With an Ink Bottle.

The Mississippian Cut on the Head and Carried From the Scene of Battle.

WASHINGTON, April 23.—Congressman Money, democrat, of Mississippi, senator-elect from that state, and Congressman Hall, democrat, of Missouri, had a personal encounter in the committee on naval affairs today and it is said Mr. Money was hit on the head with a chair. Mr. Money and Mr. Hall are both members of the naval committee. The committee was not in session at the time of the fracas. Felix McCloskey, the messenger of the committee, who was standing at the door, heard the two members talking rather loudly. They were evidently both very much aroused. Suddenly Mr. McCloskey heard Mr. Hall say:

"I'll allow no man to call me a liar."

With the words he reached over and planted his fist in Mr. Money's face. Mr. Hall is a man of large statue, standing six feet, two inches and weighing 250 pounds. Mr. Money is also tall, but rather slender in build, and no match for his opponent physically. The blow staggered the Mississippian, and before Mr. Money could recover himself, Mr. Hall grabbed a large glass ink well from the table and hurled it at Mr. Money. The latter, already dazed, could not dodge the missle and it struck him behind the ear, cutting an ugly gash. Mr. Money fell back against the wall. At this juncture Mr. McCloskey, who had been making his way toward the irate congressmen, crowded between them and prevented further onslaughts.

Mr. Hall was with difficulty repressed from continuing the assault. Mr. Money stood against the wall faint from the loss of blood, which was streaming down his neck from the wound in his head. He was hurriedly taken to a committee room on the floor below, while Mr. Hall walked calmly along the corridor to the hall of the house. The blood from Mr. Money's wound dropped on the marble floor as he was carried down the steps. A great crowd immediately congregated and there was much excitement. The details of the cause of the encounter were hard to obtain. Mr. Hall, when seen immediately after the fight, said he did not desire to make a statement. 'It was a personal matter," said he, "and I do no desire to say anything. I do not suppose Mr. Money, either, will care to make a statement. Mr. Wilson, a member of the sub committee, was present."

Mr. Money was taken to the room of the committee on claims where his wounds were dressed by a physician who happened to be in the building. There were two cuts, one just back of the ear, about an inch long and the other further down the neck, both made probably by the points of the ink well. Mr. Money, like his adversary, said he did not desire to make a statement.

STRIKE ENDED.

Glass Bosses and Blowers Make a Settlement.

Wilhelms, the Cause of the Whole Trouble, Will Not be Reinstated.

HARTFORD CITY, Ind., April 23.—The Hartford City glass workers' strike was adjusted last evening. A committee of strikers was in conference with the Hartford City Glass company all yesterday afternoon and a settlement was reached which is declared to be satisfactory to both sides. Wilhelms, the blower, will not be re-employed by the company. The refusal to reinstate Wilhelms was the cause of the strike. The factory will not resume operations for two or three days, the company having dipped out the tanks on the supposition that it would be impossible to come to terms with the members of the local union, and it will take that long to get ready to make glass.

A Muncie correspondent reports that the C. H. Over factory, at that place, with forty-five pots, closed yesterday and full settlements were made with the 400 employes, with instructions that they would not be needed until the next fire, September 1. This is a part of the 130 Indiana pots that are to go off at once. Where the others will come from cannot now be told, as it was believed that the pots would be taken equally from each factory.

Telegrams from other Indiana points at which glass factories are located report that the news of the adjustment is received with general satisfaction.

TWO GIRLS DROWNED.

Committed Suicide for Some Unknown Reason.

MENOMINEE, Wis., April 23.—Edna Varney and Emma Cunningham, aged sixteen and fifteen years respectively, committed suicide by drowning in the mill pond at Downsville, nine miles south of this city. They were missed from home yesterday and were last seen on Tuesday evening. Their bodies were found today. No cause assigned for the rash act.

TRAINMAN KILLED

In a Railroad Collision at North Vernon, Ind.

EVANSVILLE, Ind., April 23. — A Louisville and Nashville fruit train and an Evansville and Terre Haute passenger train collided at a crossing near Mount Vernon, Ind., last night. Alex Driscoll, brakeman on the latter train, was killed, while James Covington, engineer, and F. R. Thompson, brakeman on the fruit train, were seriously injured. The trains were moving slowly at the time. The baggage car of the passenger train was telescoped and two coaches thrown from the track. The Louisville and Nashville engine was turned at right augle across the rails and the track was torn up for some distance. The work of repair was begun immediately, and trains are running regularly today.

MAY LYNCH HIM.

Newport People Assume a Threatening Attitude.

Impatient at the Law's Slow Progress and Anxious to Settle With Jackson.

NEWPORT, Ky., April 23.—The court room was again crowded to its utmost capacity today at the continuation of the trial of Scott Jackson. Only about a half-dozen women were among the spectators. The Bryan family, the father, mother, sister and brothers of Pearl Bryan, were seated within the bar, near the attorneys for the prosecution. Owing to a consultation between the court and counsel, the object of which was not made known, the trial did not begin until 10:30.

Then Attorney Crawford, for the defense, moved to strike out all that portion of Mayor Caldwell's testimony which contained Walling's statements to the mayor of what the defendant, Jackson, had said to Walling. The court took the motion under advisement.

The first witness called was Dr. Jenkins, whose testimony was directed against the supposed defense that Pearl Bryan was dead before decapitation. Dr. Jenkins' testimony was entirely opposed to the theory. He said that the blood in the body of a person dying from any other cause than blood letting would coadjulate in from one to seven minutes, and that, therefore, it would have been impossible to have emptied a good body of blood, as was Pearl Bryan's, by decapitation after death. Certainly the death took place in Cincinnati and the body was afterward decapitated where it was found. The ground of the motion to exclude portions of Mayor Caldwell's testimony is that, under the law in Kentucky when two or more persons are jointly indicted they are not permitted to testify against each other. Dr. Fishback followed Dr. Jenkins and corroborated his statements on the subject of blood coadulation. He was the last witness before the noon recess.

At the noon recess an incident occurred showing the state of feeling toward the prisoner. A crowd of boys and perhaps twenty or thirty men were on the street where they could see Jackson going back to jail. One of the men, putting his hands to his mouth to form a sort of trumpet, shouted to the prisoner: "The day we hang you, Jackson." Jackson looked nervously in the direction of the voice, and a deputy sheriff made an effort to locate the man, but did not succeed. A bystander remarked: "We outsiders may attend to the hanging sooner than the court does." Such remarks as, "There goes the scoundrel," were heard among the spectators. Even in the court room mutterings were heard as the crowd was dispersing.

FIEND IN JAIL.

Roy Brockus Assaults an Aged Woman.

When His Crime Becomes Known the Citizens Prepare for a Lynching, but the Sheriff Interferes.

SOUTH BEND, Ind., April 23.—It has just leaked out that Roy Brockus, of Argos, Marshall county, Ind, was secretly placed in jail in this city about midnight on Tuesday to prevent a posible lynching. Brockus is regarded as one of the most desperate characters in Marshall county. He is charged with forcing an entrance Sunday morning into the residence of Mrs. Elizabeth Kershaw, aged seventy-five, at Argos and criminally assaulting her, after which he robbed the house, it being reported she had a large sum of money hidden about the place. Her condition, at last reports, was serious, and indignation at Argos became very great. Brockus was caught and placed in the Marshall county jail. Threats of lynching were made and it was deemed best to get the man out of the county, and he was quietly brought here. Sheriff Eberhast today said he feared Argos citizens might come here and demand the prisoner for lynching. Every pre caution will be exercised.

TO DROP SECTARIAN SCHOOLS.

Indian Children Will Not be Sent to Them After 1897.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 29.—The senate yesterday disposed of the Indian question, for the present, at least, by adopting Senator Cockrell's amendment to the Indian appropriation bill. By it the secretary of the interior is given permission to contract with sectarian schools to the amount of 50 per cent. of the contracts of 1895, but only when he cannot get the Indian children schooled elsewhere. There was little discussion, and Mr. Carter made no objection to the Cockrell substitute for his amendment. The proposition, as adopted defers for one year the action proposed by the house, of terminating the contract with sectarian schools. Every democrat who voted supported the amendment, while more than two-thirds of the republicans voting opposed it, apparently preferring the house proposition, which terminates the sectarian school system at once.

WEYLER BOASTFUL.

Tells How He Will Whip the Cubans.

Spain Will be Compelled to Make Important Concessions, However. Before the War Ends.

HAVANA, April 23.—General Weyler is staking all on the present military movement. He is opposing the guerrilla warfare by an almost geometric plan. In an interview with your correspondent, the general says:

"Maceo will never cross the trocha except as a prisoner. The day he attacks the trocha he will fall or be captured. It is utterly impossible for him to come eastward. I have a strong force on the whole line and also have a large party of troops between Maceo's position in the northern mountains and the trocha."

"But Maceo is on the east side of the barrier. Suppose the two brothers should attack the line from different sides at different points on the same day?"

"Ah," replied Mr. Weyler, "I have a strong force on this side, which keeps Jose Maceo's men divided into small bands and they cannot unite for such a manouver."

"Why do you not attempt to force Maceo to a decisive battle now?"

"Maceo will not stand and fight," the general answered. "I have several independent columns which keep him moving about in the hills."

"But can you not surround him? He is apparently confined to a small district."

"Well," explained General Weyler, "that would simply mean chasing Maceo through the whole province. I do not propose to have my main force drawn forward from the trocha. I want the insurgents to attack the line."

"When do you look for an attempt to force your line?"

"Never," said General Weyler. "My opinion is that Maceo knows he is in a trap at last and he will abandon his troops and escape from Cuba by water."

"You say the war will be brought to an end soon. How do you expect it to end?"

"As soon as the insurgents see that their cause is lost," General Weyler responded, "the small bands will begin to come in and give up their arms."

"Do you intend to proclaim a general amnesty."

"Yes, but not now. There must be more fighting. The enemy must be severely punished in the field and their power completely broken. Then I will offer amnesty, but not before."

MADRID, April 23.—The report that an understanding is about to be reached between Spain and the United States, in regard to Cuba, is favorably received in financial and commercial circles without stopping to inquire whether the welcome news is true or not. According to the current story, the Spanish government is to grant to Cuba, very soon, home rule, on a much broader scale than contemplated in the bills which have so far passed the cortes, and that this concession is to be supplemented by tariff reforms and a treaty of reciprocity to develope trade between the United States and the Spanish West Indies.

The Liberal says: "The Spanish mothers whose 130,000 sons are about to be exposed to the deadly climate of Cuba, during the rainy season, the Spanish taxpayers, who apprehend the consequences of the heavy cost of a prolonged civil war and, indeed, the whole nation at heart, would gladly welcome the pacification of Cuba by an early sincere concession of reforms now admitted by almost all Spanish politicians to be urgent and inevitable."

It is obviously the prevalent impression in many classes that the best course is for Spain to bow to the pressure and circumstances before it is too late and do it with good grace. What possibly may yet avert Cuban independence, by procrastination and misguided postponement of tardy concessions, may lead to a conflict with America.

On the other hand, directly the jingo papers perceive the drift of public opinion they again start an anti-American campaign. The Heraldo opened fire by affecting to lament the decrv of pride, patriotism and popular enthusiasm, predicting the successive loss to Spain of her colonies through foreign influence.

The Imparcial follows suit, declaring that the nation will never allow its government to bow to American interference in favor of West Indian and home rule.

Other jingo organs imitated the Imparcial, menacing the monarchy and its government with dire consequences if President Cleveland is not told to mind his own business.

GOVERNOR M'KINLEY

Participates in a Family Gathering at Canton, Ohio.

CANTON, Ohio, April 22.—Yesterday was a happy day in the McKinley family at the old homestead here. Major McKinley and his invalid wife were present at an informal family gathering in commemoration of his mother's eighty-seventh birthday. Mother McKinley was in excellent health and spirits on the occasion, as she is generally at her advanced age, resembling in that respect her deceased husband, who was up and attending to business to within a few days of his death at the age of eighty-five, a few years ago. There were present at yesterday's gathering, Abner McKinley and daughter, Mabel, of New York; Charles Miller and wife, W. K. Miller and wife, of this city, cousins; Mrs. Osborne, of Youngstown, and Mrs. Duncan, of Cleveland, sisters of Mother McKinley. During the birthday party, special telegrams brought the news to Canton of the instructing of the Tennessee national delegates for McKinley; of the election of McKinley delegates in McKinley's old district at Alliance, and the Newark, Ohio, district; of McKinley delegates in the Peoria, Ill., district, and also news that half of the Connecticut delegates are McKinley men, as well as assurances of support from delegates elected in New York and Michigan.

CABINET RESIGNS.

Bourgeois and His Colleagues Retire

From Their Offices in France Because They Could Not Secure Relief for Madagascar.

PARIS, April 23.—The Bourgeois cabinet has resigned. The resignation was announced by the premier immediately upon the reconvening of the chamber of deputies today, and at the conclusion of the announcement M. Bourgeois and his colleagues withdrew.

According to the newspapers here, President Faure has declined to countersign the bill providing for the revision of the constitution, which the premier, M. Bourgeois, wished to submit to the chamber of deputies when that body reassembles today, as a result of the special summons following the action of the senate in postponing the vote on the Madagascar credits. It is added that in view of the president's refusal to sign this bill the members of the radical left party have decided to introduce a motion denying the senate the right to be the sole interpreter of the constitution and demanding that a meeting of the national assembly be called to decide the questions in dispute.

M. Bourgeois, in announcing the resignation of the ministry, read a statement contesting the right of the senate to overthrow a ministry or to be the sole interpreter of the constitution, but, he added, in view of the impossibility of securing proper military reliefs for Madagascar, the cabinet was compelled to resign.

BULUWAYO IN DANGER.

Telegraphic Communication is Cut Off With the Outside,

And 15,000 Bloodthirsty Matabeles Lying in Wait to Pounce Upon the Citizens.

CAPE TOWN, April 23.—Telegraphic communication with the town of Buluwayo has been cut off at Fig Tree. The latter is a small place near Mangwe, southwest of Buluwayo. The break cuts off all means of communication by wire with Buluwayo and, in view of the serious condition of affairs there, the town being surrounded by 15,000 hostile Matabeles, it causes considerable anxiety. A repairing and scouting squad has been sent out from Mangwe in the direction of Fig Tree. There was no change in the situation when Buluwayo was last heard from and it is hoped the break may be due to an accident or simply be the work of a maurading band of Matabeles.

TO TEST THE ASEPTOLIN LYMPH

Cows Afflicted With Tuberculosis and Are Now to be Treated.

PITTSBURG, April 23.—Aseptolin, the lymph whose efficacy in consumption was discovered and demonstrated by Dr. Cyrus A. Edson, of New York, has been successfully used on human beings in the western penitentiary. Dr. Robert Jennings, jr., has arranged for making the first test in curing cows afflicted with tuberculosis. It is generally known that there is no more fruitful source of pulmonary disease than milk taken from cows suffering from this mslady. If the attempt to stamp out tuberculosis among cattle is successful local physicians have hopes that consumption can also be stamped out. Dr. Jennings has written Dr. Edson, of New York, concerning the test, and has received a reply from the famous practitioner indorsing the move and assuring Dr. Jennings of his interest until the results are known.

SOCIETY BELLES CONDUCTORS.

Novel Means Suggested to Aid a Hospital in Middletown, N. Y.

MIDDLETOWN, N. Y., April 23.—A novel proposition has been made by the Middletown-Goshen Traction company to assist Thrall hospital, in this city. The company proposes to donate one day's receipts of the electric railway to the hospital, providing the managers of the institution will select young lady conductors to collect fares on all cars during the day and evening. Young society women will accept the proposition, and hope to give the hospital a great benefit at an early date.

HON. WM. WILLIAMS

At One Time Congressman From This District.

His Death at Warsaw After a Long Illness—Was a Prominent Politician and Diplomat.

WARSAW, Ind., April 23.—The death of Hon. William Williams, which has been expected for a long time, occurred yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of his son in this city. He had been sick with dropsy for many months.

"Billy" Williams, as he was familiarly called, filled a prominent part in the political history of the state of Indiana. He came to this county in 1836, was admitted to the practice of law in 1841. In 1854 he was nominated by the whig party as a candidate for governor of the state. During the canvass he held joint discussions with his opponent, Ashbel P. Willard, in sixty-five counties of the state. He was defeated, but ran far ahead of his ticket. Mr. Williams took an active part in securing the location of the Pittsburg, Fort Wayne and Chicago railroad through this city and was for some years one of the directors of the road. In 1859 he was elected one of the directors of the northern Indiana prison at Michigan City. In 1863 he was appointed commander of Camp Allen at Fort Wayne, with authority to raise troops. Within six weeks he had four full regiments in the field. He was then appointed paymaster for volunteer troops, with headquarters at Louisville, Ky., where he remained to the close of the war. In 1866 he was elected by the republican party to the fortieth congress, re-elected as member of the forty first and forty-second congresses and in 1872 was elected as member from the state at large of the forty-third congress. He was appointed by President Garfield as minister to Paraguay and Uruguay, South America, his commission being dated the day President Garfield was shot by Guiteau, which position he held for several years. Mr. Williams was an eloquent and enthusiastic speaker and was classed by his party as one of the very best in the state. About ten years ago he undertook the task of writing a history of his life, but failing of health prevented the accomplishment of this. His age was seventy-four years and eleven months.

APPORTIONMENT CASE.

Argument Begun in the Supreme Court.

INDIANAPOLIS, April 23.—The argument in the apportionment cases inaugurated by the republicans in a suit to set aside the apportionment law enacted in 1885 was begun in the supreme court yesterday. Ex-Attorney General Smith and State Senator Kern appeared for the democrats, and A. C. Harris and Miller, Winter & Elam for the republicans.

Just before the argument began Mr. Smith filed a motion to dismiss the case on the ground that the court had no jurisdiction and the argument of the democratic attorneys was directed to this point alone, it being contended that the court has decided that the apportionment act of 1885 is the only valid law and that the object of the republican parties to the suit is to leave the state without a legislative apportionment and thus stop the functions of government.

The attorneys for the republican committee contended in reply that the only thing to be considered was whether the law of 1885 is a valid apportionment law, and their argument was directed to showing that it contained the same objectionable features that constrained the court to set aside the law of 1895.

A SUIT FOR DIVORCE.

The Wife Demands That All Titles be Transferred to Her.

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., April 23.—Margaret Henry, wife of Patrick C. Henry, a prominent local capitalist and ex-attorney, filed suit for divorce yesterday, demanding that the title to all the property now held by him be quieted in her name. She alleges that it was acquired by means derived from her parents' estate. The defendant is also enjoined from disposing of any property, pending the settlement of the suit. The complaint alleges ill treatment. The couple have been married twenty-eight years. Their children are leaders in social circles.

GONE A FISHING.

President Cleveland Spends the Day at Leesburg, Va.

WASHINGTON, April 23.—President Cleveland, Secretary Morton and Commissioner of Internal Revenue Miller left Washington last night at 9 o'clock over the Washington and Ohio railroad for Leesburg, Va., where they will spend the day fishing as the guests of Mr. Harrison, who has a fishing reserve near Leesburg. The party expects to return to the city tonight. The president has visited Mr. Harrison several times before on fishing excursions.

Fenian Leader Dead.

DUBLIN, April 23.—A dispatch from Mitchellstown, near Cork, announces the death there of the Fenian leader, J. S. Casey, who was one of the originators of the Land league.

President Cleveland.

WASHINGTON, April 23.—President Cleveland has taken up his abode at Woodley for the spring months. Mrs. Cleveland and the children have already been installed there for two weeks past on account of the appearance of measles in the household, but all traces of the malady have now disappeared and the president goes out every afternoon to his suburban home.

ELECTED OFFICERS.

The Missionary Women of Ohio and Indiana

Who Have Been Holding a Two Days' Meeting in This City—Convention Proceedings.

The nineteenth annual session of the Anglaize branch of the Woman's Missionary association of the United Brethren church, comprising the societies in northwestern Ohio and northeastern Indiana, which has been in session at the Calvary United Brethren church in this city for the last two days, will close tonight.

At their meeting this morning the devotional services were conducted by Mrs. George Hutchinson, of Lima, after which the reports of the secretary and treasurer were read. The report of the treasurer, Mrs. Lower, showed an encouraging condition of the society, and an increase in the receipts of money for the past year over previous years.

Mrs. Mary L. Waldo, of Saratoga, Ind., then read an interesting paper on "Our Commission," showing the work of the missions abroad and the duty of the members to uphold it

The society then proceeded to the election of officers for the coming year and it resulted as follows:

President—Mrs. L. Waldo, of Saratoga, Ind.

First Vice President—Mrs. C. A. Bailey, of Lockington, Ohio.

Second Vice President—Mrs. Flo Porter, of Ossian, Ind.

Secretary—Mrs. J. W. Lake, of Ossian.

Treasurer—Mrs. J. W. Lower, of Lockington.

Mrs. Lake was elected fraternal delegate to the Young People's convention, which meets at Geneva, N. Y., during the first week in June.

Mrs. Woodruff was elected fraternal delegate to the annual convention, which meets at Lima, Ohio, in September.

Mrs. C. A. Bailey was elected delegate to the meeting of the Woman's Board, at Mt. Pleasant, Pa., on May 15.

The conference will close tonight with a meeting at the church. The devotional exercises will be led by Mrs. R. W. Wilgus, of Lima. A paper on "The World for Christ" will be read by Mrs. Margaret Shives, and Ella Schenck, a returned missionary, will deliver an address on "Skepticism and Prayer in the Church."

SAYS HE WILL BOLT.

A Prominent Silver Democrat Explains His Position.

ST. LOUIS, April 23.—Senator Benjamin R. Tillman, of South Carolina, is here. At noon he visited the Merchants' exchange and made a brief address. At night the senator spoke for two hours to a crowded audience at the exposition building on "The impending crisis." In an interview he said:

"If the Chicago convention don't declare for free silver I shall walk out, and I think all the delegates from my state will do the same thing. The people are tired of gold bugs and straddle bugs and they are not going to be dictated to any more by the plutocrats of Wall street. If Mr. Bland is nominated I will certainly support him. I will try to get the South Carolina delegation for him. We want no jelly fishes. We want men who are for silver and who will stand by us. If we go to Chicago and secure a declaration for sixteen to one, and then nominate a straddle bug, it will be simply to hang out an emblem of defeat. For all the loss we would sustain by the defection of the gold bugs we would gain more by additions from free silver republicans and the populists. The time has come for a new alignment and we want it made right now."

WOMEN BARRED.

Lacked Only Eighteen Votes of Winning.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, April 23.—The proposition to admit women as lay delegates to the general conference of the Methodist Episcopal church has been defeated by a very narrow margin. The vote of the North Dakota conference was received here today. It was the last to be taken on the proposition. The total vote is shown to be 7,515 for the admission of women and 2,529 against. According to a provision of the discipline, it is necessary for a proposition to change any of the restrictive rules of the church to receive the support of three-fourths of the members of the annual conference voting for the proposition and two-thirds of the members of the general conference. According to the figures issued today the women have lost by just eighteen votes.

FOR A SHORTER DAY.

Over 500,000 Men Will Strike and Win.

PITTSBURG, Pa., April 23.—In an interview here today President Gompers, of the American Federation of Labor, stated that over 500,000 men would make a demand for a shorter day on May 1st and that most of them would get it without a struggle

Tomorrow evening, at the Masonic Temple, Leotta, one of the finest readers before the American public today, will give an artistic rendering of tragedy and comedy, and the Temple will no doubt be crowded to hear her. She is brought her in the interest of the Y. W. C. A.

A GOOD THING FOR US.

The Oldest and Best Walks Off With the Cake.

What the American Newspaper Directory, of New York, Says of "The Sentinel."

The American Newspaper Directory has gone to the trouble to find out the newspaper having the largest circulation in each congressional district in the United States, and it backs up its statements by offering to give a reward of $100 to the first person who disproves any of them. The following is what they say of this congressional district:

"THE FORT WAYNE DAILY SENTINEL has the largest circulation accorded to any paper published in the Twelfth congressional district of Indiana, which has a population of 162,216, and the publishers of the American Newspaper Directory guarantee the accuracy of the circulation rating accorded to this paper by a reward of $100 to the first person who successfully assails it."

"OLD SLEUTH."

He Comes Back to Town From Columbia City.

He is Now in Jail—Young Woman Beastly Drunk—Police Court This Morning.

There were four prisoners in police court this morning. One was Amos Shoaff, "Old Sleuth," the man who imagines himself a detective, and who was taken in charge by the sheriff's deputies a few days ago and sent to his guardian in Whitley county for safe keeping. He came back to this city yesterday and was gathered in again by the police. He was sent to jail to be held until some disposition of his case can be determined upon.

A young woman giving her name as Jennie Smith was found on Columbia street last night beastly drunk. She said a man had made her drunk and then deserted her. She went to jail for eleven days.

James Bullison is the name given by a man who is well known in the city, especially in the neighborhood of the south railroads and shops, who was found in company with Minnie Bowers, a woman of the town, last night. The woman was sent to jail for fifteen days for prostitution and the man received a similar sentence for associating with her.

CONTRACT AWARDED.

The Home Telephone Company Orders Its Telephones.

Switchboards and Other Material Purchased—One Thousand Instruments Are Ordered.

The contract for the telephones, switch boards and other accessories to the new exchange of the Home telephone company was awarded yesterday to the Western Telephone Construction company, of Chicago, whose president, J. E. Keelyn, was in the city for that purpose.

The order includes an immediate shipment of 1,000 telephones of the best pattern made by the company, ten switch boards, each holding 100 numbers and a heap of other material and and articles which the public would not understand if enumerated.

As stated in THE SENTINEL yesterday, the Home Telephone company is pushing its work rapidly and expects to have its exchange, or at least the greater part of it, ready for operation in July. The telephones which they purchased yesterday are said to be fine instruments and were selected after a careful examination of several other kinds.

WILL LIVE TOGETHER.

Mr. and Mrs. Bowersock Patch Up Their Troubles.

The case of the state vs. Andrew Bowersock and Edith Black, charged with prostitution, was to have been heard today before Justice Bullerman. The woman was fined $5 and costs and agreed to leave the city at once. The case against Bowersock was dismissed. Mrs. Bowersock filed suit for divorce a few days ago on account of this matter, but the suit has been withdrawn and Mr. and Mrs. Bowersock will live together again.

UNION MEN WIN.

The Lumber Shovers' Strike Ends Suddenly.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, April 23.—For a time today it looked as if there would be another riot on the docks, but the trouble was finally averted by the union lumber shovers winning the strike. For the present, at least, the trouble is over and all is serene. All boats are being unloaded by the union men. In police court today the men arrested for participating in yesterday's riot pleaded not guilty and their cases were continued.

FOR TWENTY YEARS

Brother and Sister Had Been Separated.

Miss Martha Curry at Last Hears From Her Brother, Who is in the East Indies.

A brother and sister who have been separated for twenty years and who have no recollection of ever having seen each other, have at last learned each other's whereabouts and prospects are that before long they will be reunited.

The story could be made a long one and it would require columns to tell it in detail, but the main facts are as follows:

Twenty years ago there lived in one of the counties of Ireland a family named Curry. The father and mother died, their deaths both occurring within a short time. Two little children were left, one a little girl of two years and the other an infant boy six weeks old.

The parents of the deceased Mr. Curry took the little daughter to raise and the baby son was taken care of by the grandparents on the father's side.

Shortly afterward the family rallied the daughter emigrated to America and settled near Sheldon, this county. The girl grew up and she is now Miss Martha Curry, who is employed in the McKinney house, at the Pittsburg depot.

Miss Curry never heard anything from her brother from the time when she left Ireland to come to this country with her grandparents, twenty years ago. Year after year she waited for tidings from him, but none ever came and she had lost all hope of ever hearing from him.

Yesterday a Catholic priest, a missionary who came to this city a day or two ago, stepped into the McKinney house and inquired of Matron Mrs. McNamara if a girl named Martha Curry was employed in the house. Upon being told that she was he asked to see her. Miss Curry came forth and the priest handed her a letter.

It was a letter from her brother. He said to her that he was a member of the English army, with a rank of corporal, and that he was stationed in the East Indies with his regiment. He had for years pushed his search for his sister and finally was rewarded with the information that she had come to America years ago and settled with her grandparents in Indiana. This led him to write the letter and start it to her.

The priest said he had met the young man, who is now twenty years of age, in the East Indies, and that the corporal had, upon learning that he was coming to this country, asked him to undertake to find his long lost sister for him. The priest consented to do so if possible, and that he has kept his promise can be seen.

Miss Curry was overjoyed at receiving the letter and will at once enter into correspondence with her brother in order to arrange for meeting him somewhere as soon as possible. The meeting will certainly be a happy one.

BOLD HOLD UP.

Tom Brooks and a Companion Attempt Robbery.

Their Victim Gets the Drop on Them and Brooks is Fatally Wounded.

EUFALIA, I. T., April 23.—Ten miles west of here, in an unsuccessful raid on the house of T. J. Brashnear, a farmer, late last night, Brashnear was seriously and Tom Brooks, one of the outlaws, mortally wounded. Brooks' pal escaped and is being pursued by a number of deputies. The escaped man covered six farm hands, while Brooks compelled Brashnear to reveal a trunk supposed to contain his money. Brashnear got the drop on the outlaw and shot him through the abdomen and liver. The fire was instantly returned, Brashnear receiving a bullet in the right lung. Brashnear's wound is serious, but not necessarily fatal. Brooks cannot recover. No money was secured.

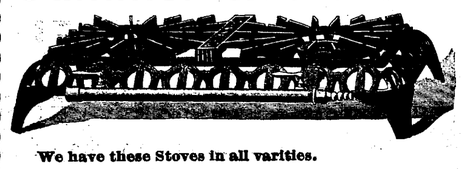

There was no game at the Lakeside ball park this afternoon on account of the rain. The Chicago Maroons are here and will play the Fort Wayne team at Lakeside Saturday. Tomorrow the Clevelands will be here. They arrive from Cincinnati tonight and will practice at Lakeside park tomorrow forenoon if the weather permits. No doubt a lot of people will go out to see them practice and a big crowd is sure to attend the game tomorrow afternoon. It is understood that the Fort Wayne battery tomorrow will be Swayne and Criger.

There is on exhibition in the show window of the People's store a large painting, a picture of an elk, which was executed by Artist Schanz, for the Fort Wayne lodge of Elks. It is a magificent piece of work, and framed it stands about seven feet high and is about four feet wide. The picture is a copy of one that was exhibited at the world's fair, in the art building, and the Elks can justly feel proud of it. The cost of the picture was something in the neighborhood of $450.

CONGRESS is moving along at an easy pace. The country would feel more at ease if congress would speedily adjourn.

UNITED STATES senators come high. In addition to their salary of $5,000 apiece, the government has to pay $4,883 each for other expenses. It is more than they are worth.

IN Nebraska on arbor day a million trees were planted. That is the way to make a fertile and attractive region. More trees ought to be planted in other parts of the country continually.

THERE is only one way for the democrats of Fort Wayne to succeed in the election of a man for mayor, and that is to nominate the right kind of a candidate and then the democrats will rally as a man to his support. There was a time in Fort Wayne when anybody could be elected who happened to be the nominee of the party, but that day has gone by. Voters who love their city and want to see it stand in the front rank of progress, enterprise and prosperity care more for the man than they do for the party.

IT seems strange to the average person to hear Mr. Scherer's friends say that he will enforce the law to the letter, and then see the saloonkeepers and brewers and brewery agents working day and night for his election.

THE executive committee of the Northern Indiana Editorial association will meet in this city next week, to arrange a program for the annual convention of that organization here next June. This is to be made one of the most interesting meetings yet held by this association.

The Man for Mayor.

The next mayor of Fort Wayne should be a man who is made of the right kind of stuff. He ought not to be a man who is vacilating, undetermined, lacking backbone, or who can be swerved from duty by the enemies of law and order. He should not be the tool of any political ring or any set of men who desire to secure privileges which are against the law and the best good of our city. He should not be identified or in sympathy with or under the control of those who are the enemies of law and order. He should not be a man who is bound by promises to put that class of men into the offices under him because they worked for his election. The people of Fort Wayne can not afford to elect that kind of a man for mayor, and if they do so they will make a grievous mistake. The office is one of too much importance and too many responsibilities to have such a man filling it. Under the charter he will have the appointment of the city attorney, city comptroller, three members of the board of public improvements, three members of the board of public safety, and three members of the board of health, virtually controling all of these departments affecting law and order and the material interests of the city. Upon his shoulders will rest the responsibility for the good government or bad government of Fort Wayne. How necessary, then, is it that the next mayor should be a man who, knowing his duty, will do it without fear or favor, at all times and under all circumstances. He should be firm and resolute, free from political entanglements and ante-election promises, and who, standing upon the platform of duty and considering a public office a public trust, will have the courage to do the right and control the city's affairs for the best good of the people. That is the sort of a man we want for mayor—and we firmly believe that such a man will be elected, on the 5th day of May.

The Test for Office.

In the selection of men for office THE SENTINEL has never believed that the candidate's particular religious belief ought to operate for or against him, and it does not think that the question of the candidate's church membership should be taken into consideration by the voter when he comes to cast his ballot at the polls. It ought to make no difference whether the man seeking the suffrages of the people is a Catholic, or Lutheran, or Baptist, or Methodist, or Presbyterian. He may be a member of either of these churches and be a fit man for the office to which he aspires. He may be a member of either of these churches and be an unfit man for the office to which he aspires. The question of which church he belongs to should cut no figure at all. There are good men in all these churches, and, we doubt not, there are bad men also. The test for office holding, however, ought to be morality and competency, and unless a candidate possesses these qualifications he surely ought not to be elevated to elective positions of trust or honor. THE SENTINEL never has favored, and it never will favor, the drawing of church denominational lines in city, county, state, or national elections. In this nation of religious liberty the different church denominations are on an equal footing under the constitution and the laws, and their members ought also to be put on the same plane when they appear on the political arena as candidates for office. If elected, will they make good officials and do their full duty? This alone should be the test.

"A hero is a successful crank, and a crank is an unsuccessful hero," says a writer with a happy turn for expression.

Mother-love is mixed with daily, hourly sacrifice. The love increases with the sacrifice it entails. The more a mother suffers and endures for her little one, the more precious it becomes. She loves it because she has labored and suffered for it. The physical organs concerned in maternity affect a woman's entire constitution to a degree only half realized by many doctors. Women are often treated specially for sick headaches, dyspepsia, melancholy, or what is supposed to be a liver or kidney affection or heart-disease, when in reality the whole trouble is with the reproductive organs. This delicate and intricate organism and the rational treatment for its peculiar ailments is a life study for the wisest physician. Probably no practitioner living has a higher repute in this special direction, than Dr. R. V. Pierce, Chief Consulting Physician of the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, of Buffalo, N. Y. His "Favorite Prescription," is the most perfect remedy ever known for all "female complaints." It gets at the source of the trouble from the inside: It is not merely temporary, external, local, bolstering-up or palliative. It is a cure. It directly tones and strengthens the internal organs, restores them to health and regularity, and completely banishes the continual weakness, drag and drain which wear out body and mind. Its sale exceeds the combined sales of all other medicines for women.

In every American household, there should be a copy of Dr. Pierce's great work, "Common Sense Medical Adviser," 1008 pages, illustrated. One copy free to any address on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps to pay for mailing only. World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y.

THE RELIEF UNION

Acknowledge the Receipt of $732.50 Collected by Citizens.

The following correspondence explains itself:

FORT WAYNE, Ind., April 14, '96.

Mrs. E. H. McDonald, President Relief Union, city:

DEAR MADAM: I have the pleasure to hand you herewith a check on the Old National bank, of Fort Wayne, for $732 50, payable to Miss Katherine Hamilton, treasurer of the Fort Wayne Relief union. This amount of money is the net result of a collection undertaken for the benefit of the Relief union by a committee of gentlemen appointed by you in May, 1895. The total amount collected was $745 50; the sum of $15 having been expended in printing and other necessary expenses. The postage used in making the collection was defrayed by members of the committee.

You will probably be interested if I give you a brief history of the collection. The committee met shortly after their appointment and organized by electing Mr. E. F. Yarnelle, chairman; Mr. J. D. Bond, treasurer, and the undersigned secretary. Being informed by you that the Relief union had money on hand, or pledged, sufficient for all expenses until the fall of 1895, the committee adjourned until September. In September seven of the twelve gentlemen appointed attended a committee meeting, and decided that a wise plan was to add to their number, so that the work might be divided in such a way as to be onerous on none, and also to secure the advantage which comes from interesting a large number of people in any enterprise. After several meetings the committee was increased until it included sixty gentlemen. In the meanwhile a list of subscribers, a copy of which I enclose, was prepared. These names were divided among the committee, each gentleman taking about twelve names, to whom a letter was addressed, enclosing a circular which described the work and methods of the Relief union, a copy also enclosed. The letters asking for subscriptions met with a reasonable response, and I enclose you with this a full list of the subscribers to the fund.

The committee feel quite encouraged with the results of their labors, and believe that the outcome has justified their confidence that the citizens of Fort Wayne are inclined to support really good charitable work, and that all that is necessary is that the matter shall be presented to them in a thoroughly business like way. They would respectfully suggest that the same method might be used next year with some improvements, and that each succeeding year the collection will be more easily made.

In conclusion we would express our gratitude to all those who have aided us in giving their time and money, and our heartfelt satisfaction that the work of caring for the worthy poor of Fort Wayne is in such good hands, and is being done with so much intelligence, so much kindness, and at the same time, so much wise economy.

Respectfully yours,
For the Committee,
ALEXANDER JOHNSON,
Secretary.

FORT WAYNE, Ind., April 20, 1896

Alexander Johnson, secretary of committee on collection of funds for the Fort Wayne Relief union.

MY DEAR SIR:—Yours with check for $732 50, the amount collected by the committee appointed by the president of the Relief union, is at hand. The board of directors ask me to express to you, and through you to the committee which you represent, their thanks for the service you have rendered them. They are gratified and encouraged to find so many new friends added to their old ones. The large number of subscribers, the list of whose names you enclose, is a most hopeful sign, and proves the wisdom of the method adopted by your committee.

Your suggestion that a similar plan be taken to raise the funds needed for next year, meets the hearty approval of the board of directors. They cannot hope to select another committee of gentlemen who would do for them what yours has. So fully are they convinced of this fact, that a motion to reappoint the same committee was unanimously carried, and I am instructed to announce this to you. As you have the names of those originally appointed, I need not repeat them, and will leave it with you to inform them of our action.

The directors realize their great good fortune in having on that committee those who are interested and sympathetic, and trust the distribution of these funds may be so judicious as to merit the confidence placed in them.

Thanking you all once again for your kindly interest shown in both word and deed, I am, Yours very respectfully,

ELLEN R. BURSLEY,
Corresponding Secretary,
Fort Wayne Relief Union.

BREAK UP A SCHOOL.

Mischievous Boys at Duluth Get an Extra Play Time.

DULUTH, Minn., April 22—There was a panic at the central high school yesterday afternoon when several muskrats made their appearance in one of the rooms and proceeded to have fun with the pupils, most of whom were young ladies. The scholars jumped upon chairs and desks and kept up a constant fire of screams while the male scholars waged battle with the intruders. The battle ended in the death of the rats, but it was half an hour or more before quiet was restored. The visitors had been brought in and hidden in a desk by some of the boys.

LOVER KILLS HIMSELF.

A Muncie Lad on Being Jilted Commits Suicide.

MUNCIE, Ind., April 23—Charles Skinner, fourteen years old, committed suicide yesterday by hanging himself from the limb of a tree by means of a swing rope. He had tied a regulation hangman's noose in the rope and after adjusting it kicked a step ladder from under him. He was said to have been deeply in love with Clara Coppersmith, aged fourteen, and once threatened to kill her because she would not consent to marry him at once. He had a razor in his pocket when found and it is believed that he searched for the girl Tuesday night, intending to murder her, but she was not at home when he called.

FIGHT AGAINST BROWN.

Efforts to Force Him From His Pulpit.

He Announces That He Will Preach Next Sunday—Mrs. Cooper's War on the Pastor.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 23.—When the people of the First Congregational church meet next Wednesday night for their weekly service of prayer they will vote upon the resolution to declare the pulpit vacant. If the Rev. C. O. Brown be thus summarily retired from the pastorate steps will be taken to provide for a "supply" until the trustees can elect a successor to the reverend gentleman who now occupies the pulpit. If the resolution fails of adoption no one knows what the next step in the controversy will be. Some suggest an appeal to the civil courts to retire the Rev. Dr. Brown from a position which his opponents claim he has no right to fill as a discredited minister of the Congregational church Others advise in such a contingency the calling of an ecclesiastical council to depose him, an argument being made that a council ordained him and a council must depose him. Dr. Brown led the prayer meeting last night and announced that he would pass the examination.

Mrs. Sarah B. Cooper, whom Brown made his assistant pastor, and who has been leading the fight against the pastor, says that the church is declining and that the trustees must force Brown to retire. Many prominent and wealthy members continue to stand by him, however, and it is not improbable that he may start an independent church in this city. Mrs. Mary A. Davidson, whose arrest by Brown for blackmail precipitated all the trouble in the church, does not attempt to conceal her gratification at the troubles of the pastor. She says she will place him behind prison bars for slander and perjury. She is preparing a lecture attacking Dr. Brown.

MUNCIE, Ind., April 23—Arthur Andrews, a son of Druggist George H. Andrews, was married ten days ago to Miss Myrtle Thomas at the bride's home in Findlay, Ohio. In the meantime the bride, who is at the home of her parents, has been urging her husband to tell the story and send for her. She will soon be sent for.

LEAGUE GAMES YESTERDAY

Pittsburg 8, Louisville 3; Cincinnati 7, Cleveland 4; Chicago 9, St Louis 4; Brooklyn 12, Washington 8; Baltimore 9; Boston 1; Philadelphia 14, New York 3.

DISCUSSING THE LEAGUE.

Speaking of the success of several Inter-State league teams, Pickwick, a correspondent from Wheeling, says in Sporting Life:

Two difficulties present themselves as being at all serious and likely to interfere with the success of the league The first of these is the smallness of Washington and New Castle, and the attendance at these places may not be large enough to prevent a collapse early in the season; but wealthy men are said to be behind these two clubs, and so it may turn out all right.

The second and more serious trouble is the Fort Wayne club. Under the circumstances the admission of this club should never have been considered for a moment. Cleveland's farm is too strong for the Inter State league, and they will walk off with the pennant, and not half try. If it should turn out differently we shall be greatly surprised. I know if Wheeling were a side partner of a league club, say of Pittsburg, we should consider ourselves in clover.

ONE HUNDRED KILLED

In the Fight in Which Dervishes Took Part.

SUAKIM, April 23.—An Arab who has reached here from Osman Digna's camp, at Horasab, says that he saw a hundred wounded Dervishes there, and he confirms the report that over 100 of the enemy were killed in the recent fight The Dervishes are urging upon Osman Digna to withdraw to Thamjamkhor, owing to the scarcity of food. He has dispatched camel men to the Khalifa asking for instructions. Several of the subsidized Sheikhs have been disrated for failing to support the Egyptian troops.

Kidnapped Children Not Found.

KOKOMO, Ind., April 23—The Kokomo officers have not yet located the little acrobats, Rosa and Arizona Wilson, four and six years old, who were abducted from Indianapolis last Saturday night, although it is believed that the little ones are secreted somewhere in this city. At 9:09 Saturday night (before the police were notified of the kidnapping) a strange man and woman, with two children answering the description of the Wilson tots, got off the Indianapolis train here. Shortly afterward the man applied for a rig at a livery barn for a fifteen mile drive, but the liveryman refused to let the team out without a driver from the barn, and it was not taken. Though every train and stable has been watched since then, no trace of the strangers has been discovered.

DIAMOND CUT DIAMOND.

Two Brilliant Wits Meet, and Then the Sparks Fly.

Marshall P. Wilder dropped into the Grand Central station to call on Horace C. Du Val. The visit was a brief one, but for the few moments that they were together the conversation was so brilliant that the electric lamps began to burn mistily and took on a sallow look. A bit of the chat, culled at random, is as follows: "Hello, Marshall! How are you?"

"Oh, I am well, but I don't sleep much nights. I dreamed last night that I was dead, and the heat woke me up."

"Don't do that again. Where are you going?"

"Up to Troy. Does the Empire State stop there so I can get off?"

"Well, you can get off, you know, but that is not saying where you will alight."

"That reminds me. I was up in Herkimer the other day when the Empire State went past at about the rate of two miles a minute. Two country chaps were standing on the station platform, and one says, 'That gol darned thing don't stop fer nuthin, does she?' The other ejected a stream of tobacco juice and replied: 'Naw. She don't even hesitate.'"

Then the meeting adjourned.—New York Tribune.

Mrs. Belmont's son is William K. Vanderbilt, Jr. He is 18 years old and is at school in Southboro, Mass. He is to enter Yale next term. He is not particularly good looking, but is very popular among his schoolmates.

The other son, Harold, is now with his mother abroad.

But Mrs. Belmont's friends say she will be entirely impartial. She gave her $1,000,000 string of pearls to the Duchess of Marlborough as a wedding gift. This cannot be regarded as an equivalent of Marble House, however, as the value of pearls varies and they decay with time.

Mrs. Belmont has in lieu of dower right and as alimony from Mr. Vanderbilt the sum of $250,000 a year.—New York World.

SEALED UP A STUDENT.

Curious Experiment by College Professors In Studying Food Products.

Professors Atwater, Rosa and Wood of Wesleyan university, Middletown, Conn., are conducting a series of experiments to learn the value of food products. They have constructed an airtight room, a 10 foot cube, in which a student is confined. Fresh air is pumped in, and food, cooked under the direction of the professors, is conveyed through an airtight tube. The room is lighted by electricity and equipped with electricity. The temperature of the student is taken and condition noticed at frequent intervals. All food and all waste are weighed, the object being to learn the exact certain kinds of foods that make bone, flesh and blood.

The student will remain six days. So far he is doing well, eating heartily, sleeping well and devoting much time to study. The results of the experiment will be sent to Washington for scientific use.—New York Sun.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of Testimonials.

THE STUDIOUS GIRL.

AN INTERESTING LETTER FROM A YOUNG LADIES' COLLEGE.

Race Between the Sexes for Education. Health Impaired by Incessant Study.

The race between the sexes for education is to-day very close.

Ambitious girls work incessantly over their studies, and are often brought to a halt, through having sacrificed the physical to the mental. Then begin those ailments that must be removed at once, or they will produce constant suffering. Headache, dizziness, faintness, slight vertigo, pains in the back and loins, irregularity, loss of sleep and appetite, nervousness and blues, with lack of confidence; these are positive signs that women's arch enemy is at hand.

The following letter was received by Mrs. Pinkham in May, one month after the young lady had first written, giving symptoms, and asking advice. She was ill and in great distress of mind, feeling she would not hold out till graduation, and the doctor had advised her to go home.

—— College, Mass.

You dear Woman:—

I should have written to you before, but you said wait a month. We are taught that the days of miracles are past. Pray what is my case? I have taken the Vegetable Compound faithfully, and obeyed you implicitly and, am free from all my ills. I was a very, very sick girl. Am keeping well up in my class, and hope to do you and myself credit at graduation. * * My gratitude cannot find expression in words. Yours sincere friend, MARY ——

P. S. Some of the other girls are now using the Compound. It benefits them all.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the only safe, sure and effectual remedy in such cases, as it removes the cause, purifies and invigorates the system, and gives energy and vitality.

"THE TRIUMPH OF LOVE IS HAPPY, FRUITFUL MARRIAGE."

Every Man Who Would Know the Grand Truths, the Plain Facts, the New Discoveries of Medical Science as Applied to Married Life, Who Would Atone for Past Errors and Avoid Future Pitfalls, Should Secure the Wonderful Little Book Called "Complete Manhood, and How to Attain It."

"Here at last is information from a high medical source that must work wonders with this generation of men."

The book fully describes a method by which to attain full vigor and manly power.

A method by which to end all unnatural drains on the system.

To cure nervousness, lack of self-control, despondency, &c.

To exchange a jaded and worn nature for one of brightness, buoyancy and power.

To cure forever effects of excesses, overwork, worry, &c.

To give full strength, development and tone to every portion and organ of the body.

Age no barrier. Failure impossible. Two thousand references.

The book is purely medical and scientific, useless to curiosity seekers, invaluable to men only who need it.

A despairing man, who had applied to us, soon after wrote:

"Well, I tell you that first day is one I'll never forget. I just bubbled with joy. I wanted to hug everybody and tell them my old self had died yesterday, and my new self was born to-day. Why didn't you tell me when I first wrote that I would find it this way?"

And another thus:

"If you dumped a cart load of gold at my feet it would not bring such gladness into my life as your method has done."

Write to the ERIE MEDICAL COMPANY, Buffalo, N. Y., and ask for the little book called "COMPLETE MANHOOD." Refer to this paper, and the company promises to send the book, in sealed envelope, without any marks, and entirely free, until it is well introduced.

SUED THE COMPANY.

Herman Feltman Wants $5,000 for Injuries.

Incidents and Personal Gossip of the Office and Shop as Heard by the Reporter.

Herman Feltman, of Wanatah, Ind., has sued the Pennsylvania company for $5,000 for damages, for injuries received on the 22nd day of December, 1895, while employed as a laborer on the extra gang laying double track from Valparaiso to Winslow. Feltman fell from one of the hand cars upon which he was riding, en route home from work. There were five hand cars returning to Wanatah from work, and Feltman was riding on the second car. The second car came up to the first car and Feltman who was working the lever, standing on the southeast corner of the car, came in contact with a man named Taylor, who was working on the first car, standing on the southwest corner of the first car, the contact causing Feltman to fall from the car. The fall caused partial unconsciousness, allowing the third car to pass Feltman without causing any injury. Feltman evidently recovered consciousness long enough to attempt to arise, when he again fell, the fourth and fifth cars passing over him, causing severe injuries. The accident was the result of no negligence on the part of the company, so the latter claims.

WORK AT SWIFT PARK.

John M. Barry, of Gay street, has taken a position at Swift's park, under Boss Carpenter Clarence Farley. The carpenters engaged out there had photographs of themselves taken in a groupe, numbering about thirty-five men, and Mr. Barry called at THE SENTINEL office yesterday to exhibit one of the pictures. He says work is delayed at the park by the non arrival of some of the timbers needed in constructing the buildings, and as a consequence some of the men will be off duty a few days. Mr. Farley could employ fifty more men if he had the timber and other material for the buildings upon the grounds.

MINOR NOTES.

Trainmaster C. E. Wells, of the Wabash, was in the city over night.

E. N. Matthews has been appointed purchasing agent of the Ohio Southern road.

Joseph Carry, of the Pittsburg blacksmith shop, is taking a few days' recreation.

George Bowser, Pittsburg fireman, is off duty on account of the death of a relative.

O. N. Guildin, of the Western Gas Construction company, went to Chicago this morning.

Dr. E. F. Wagner, of the Pennsylvania relief department, has returned from Cleveland.

Gus. Rogge, janitor at the Pittsburg depot, has gone to Toledo to visit his uncle a few days.

Frank Magers has resigned at the electric works and resumed his old position with Hon. P. A. Randall.

August Rathert, Charles Fissell, Frank Driftmeyer and Frank Hensill, of the electric works, are taking a vacation.

A large pneumatic hoisting engine has been placed in the Pittsburg machine shop and was given a thorough test this morning.

General Manager L. F. LoRee, of the Pittsburg, will pass through the city tonight, en route to Grand Rapids.

Mrs. William Seibold, wife of the employe at the electric works, is recovering from a severe illness.

Sickness in the family of Engineer S. F. Hooper keeps that gentleman from his duties on the Nickel Plate.

H. A. Cherrier, traveling passenger agent of the Missouri, Kansas and Texas road, was in the city today.

J. S. Bitner has gone to Detroit to assist in putting up a gas plant for the Western Gas Construction company.

Engines 504 and 336, from the Toledo division, were taken into the Fort Wayne shops for repairs this morning.

Christian Barrett and John Feiderspiel, of the electric works, were off duty today on account of the funeral of a friend.

Nickel Plate Conductor Deahl is taking a few days' rest and his train duties are being performed by Conductor Overhulser.

G. J. Olmstead is acting as yardmaster at the Nickel Plate during the absence of J. A. Nicholson, whose wife died yesterday.

On the Richmond division of the Panhandle lines five engines are now performing the same service that eight have been doing.

The Wabash last night inaugurated its Pullman compartment service between St. Louis and Kansas City. The cars are of the latest and most elegant design.

Chris McLaughlin, a moulder who until recently was employed at the Bass foundry, is preparing to go to Cincinnati, where he hopes to find employment at his trade.

Charles H. Knothe and Fred Klengenstein have resigned their positions at the electric works. They will leave in a few days for Danville, Ill., where they have secured positions.

During the last week, owing to a falling off in business, twenty-seven conductors on the Chicago and Northwestern were reduced to brakemen and fifty brakemen dismissed.

The Ohio Southern has leased one thousand of its coal cars to the Erie, the former having more coal cars than it needs. Last year the Erie leased 525 of the Ohio Southern's cars.

Frank Wunderland, manager of the Electric corporation's St Louis office, is in the city with a party who are examining our electric lighting system with a view of purchasing machinery for a similar plant.

The Baltimore and Ohio has decided to reopen its Denver office, which was closed some months ago. S. M. Shattuc, recently appointed traveling passenger agent, will also have his headquarters at Denver.

This morning carpenters removed the one story frame building adjoining Philip Graffe's place, on Lafayette street, and the ground will soon be occupied by a handsome two story brick store building, with three ground floors.

Evidently the Pittsburg machinists are afraid to tackle the painters on the diamond, as the challenge issued by the latter club a week ago has not yet been replied to. Negotiations for a game between the painters and blacksmiths are now pending.

Monday the Toledo and Ohio Central withdrew all its trains from the Union station at Columbus, Ohio, and its fourteen passenger trains all arrive and depart from its own station, being the first road which has cut loose from the Union Railway company at that point.

Machinist W. T. Marks, of the Pittsburg shops, left today for Garrett, Ind., where he will work in the Baltimore and Ohio railway shops. Those shops are overcrowded with work, having on hand at present seventy-five engines for repairs. The men are now working fourtee hoursn per day.

George Transue, Nickel Plate switchman, left on No. 2 this morning for Towanda, Pa., to make arrangements for the funeral of Mrs. J. A. Nicholson, wife of the yard foreman, who died yesterday morning. The remains will be shipped tomorrow and they will be buried Saturday afternoon.

Machinist W. S. Wells, of the Pittsburg shops, is in receipt of a number of fine black leghorn chickens from Eastern Ohio, which he has added to his already fine coops of chickens. Mr. Wells takes considerable interest in poultry raising and most of his spare time is devoted to that industry.

Engine 171, which has been repaired in the Stony Island shops, passed through this city today, en route to the Buffalo division, where it will haul a passenger train between that city and Conneaut. No. 170, also a Nickel Plate passenger engine on the Buffalo division, is now in the shops for repairs.

The Pittsburg shops are being equipped with a new fire alarm system. An electric gong is located in the round house office and boxes located in a dozen different places throughout the shop are connected by wire with it. When the gong rings the clerk has but to look at the dial to tell just where the fire is located. He then directs the firemen.

Some time ago the western roads adopted a rule that they would not take into consideration any application for reduced rates until within sixty days before the date on which the meeting is to be held. Yesterday they were asked to make an exception in favor of a convention of Indiana schools, but they quickly voted down the proposition and declared that they would under no circumstances make any exceptions to the rule.

VALIANT JACK CHINN.

Famous as a Horseman and Handy With His Knife.

Colonel Jack Chinn, the man who recently had the temerity to charge, publicly and over his own signature, that Governor Bradley of Kentucky is a coward of the basest brand, is one of those picturesque characters who make politics in the blue grass region an exciting and often a fatal game. Some editor from the safe vantage of distance has intimated that Colonel Chinn is a bad man only as indicated by his name. If that editor lived in Kentucky, this would be about the last mistake of the kind that he would have a chance to make.

The colonel has a national reputation as a horse breeder and trainer. For three generations the Chinns have figured in turf history, and every racing man in the country knows Colonel Jack. His fame as a fighter is equally great. The prospect of a personal encounter is the only thing that will lure him from the race track or stable. When the war broke out, he swung into the saddle behind Morgan and became one of that celebrated band of raiders. The taste for spilling blood that he then acquired he has never quite outgrown. His exploits have been many and lurid, but perhaps the most sensational occurred during a race meeting in Chicago. A lifetime enemy of Chinn had given out that he was in Chicago "for the purpose of pulling off a race or two and killing Jack Chinn." The two first saw each other while driving in opposite directions on a crowded boulevard. Both made a simultaneous movement for the hip pocket, and for a minute or two the air was full of bullets. Nobody was hurt, however, and by the time their six shooters were empty they were out of range.

But the bowie knife and not the revolver is the colonel's favorite weapon. He carries one constantly in his front trousers pocket. The blade can be shut up like a pocketknife, but when a spring is pressed it flies open and locks. If Governor Bradley or any of his friends had resented the colonel's epithet, that bowie might have played an important part in the subsequent proceedings.

SUCCESSFUL BUSINESS WOMAN.

Miss McLaughlin, President of the National Association of Woman Stenographers.

The "Queen of the Stenographers" is the somewhat fanciful title which Miss Netta McLaughlin of Chicago has earned. She is, in fact, not really a queen, but the president of the National Association of Women Stenographers. Her career as a business woman has been phenomenally successful. Miss McLaughlin was born in Kansas, and after graduating from a normal school at the age of 16 set about making her own living by teaching school. Her first class was in the primary grade, where she taught a class of 100 6-year-olds. She was rapidly promoted until she became a teacher in the normal school. She took up the study of shorthand, mastered it in six weeks and completed her course by doing 100 words a minute.

She then obtained an appointment as enrolling clerk in the Kansas senate and did such satisfactory work that the next session she was made chief of the enrolling department, the highest office a woman can hold in that state.

Miss McLaughlin was next appointed commissioner of the United States court of claims, in which position she issued subpœnas, administered oaths to witnesses and took depositions. Her work was largely among the Indians, and it was trying, but remunerative. Four years ago Miss McLaughlin went to Chicago, where she went to work on a medical journal of which she is now the editor. Although she does no shorthand work now, she takes an interest in it, and enthusiastically recommends it to self dependent young women as a stepping stone to something better. She knows how to save money as well as how to earn it, and she has a considerable sum invested in real estate in Chicago. She began at the age of 20 by buying a house and lot while earning a salary of but $35 a month.

Miss McLaughlin is a tall, well built young woman and is always ready to give a word of hope and encouragement to disheartened girls. Although a woman of business, she dresses as well and with as good taste as women who have more time and thought to give to such matters.

In Self Defense.

"So you accompanied your wife to the play, after all?"

"Yes. I happened to think that if I didn't she would tell me all about it when she came home."—Chicago Record.

Minister Willis Bids Farewell to Hawaii.

His Departure Welcomed by the Government at Honolulu, Where Mr. Willis Was Not Popular.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 23.—The steamer Australia this morning brings the following:

"HONOLULU, April 16.—United States Minister Willis and family left here for San Francisco today. The refusal of the American minister to observe Hawaiian independence day on January 17 last caused this government to lay the matter before Secretary of State Olney, through Minister Hatch. It has been an open secret here since January that the social relations between Minister Willis and the Hawaiian government have not been cordial. It is stated that none of the officials of the government were invited to be present at Washington's birthday celebration at the American legation.

"The United States steamer Petrel arrived April 13, sixteen days from Yokahoma. The Concord arrived from the same port this morning. Both vessels will coal here and then depart for Mare Island Navy yard."

Why He Knew.

"I've been robbed in this car!" suddenly exclaimed the red whiskered fat man as he sprung up and glared at the 20 other passengers.

"I don't believe it!" bluntly replied the pious looking young man, who had been crowding up to him for the last ten minutes.

"I say I've had my pocket picked in this car, and I forbid anybody to leave it till I call an officer!" shouted the fat man.

"And I say you lost your roll before you got aboard!" muttered the pious looking.

Thousands of dollars have been spent in getting the purest drugs and the latest discoveries in medicine and surgery for use in the institute. The ablest medical and surgical talent in the United States is constantly employed in its service and all it asks of the sick and afflicted is that it be given a fair, honest trial Thousands of people are living today who have been cured of long standing diseases by it, and who will cheerfully vouch for its ability and integrity. If you live away from the city write for question blanks. All communications strictly confidential. Thousands cured through the medium of correspondence. Street cars and carriages run direct to the Institute. Address Younge's Medical and Surgical Institute, Fort Wayne, Ind, Office days: Thursday, Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

AN OUTRAGE.

It would be well for his customers to take advantage of these low, cut throat prices, and profit by it and lay in a good supply. IMPORTANT TO SUFFERERS.

HOW YOU MAY OBTAIN A LASTING CURE FROM PILES.

No Surgical Operation, No Pain, Trifling Expense—A Simple, Harmless Remedy, But It Does the Work.

There are some people who have piles as frequently and regularly as other people have colds.

Any little bowel trouble will bring them on, any extra exertion, as in lifting, will produce them, and in fact will often appear without any apparent provocation. Piles, however, are much more serious than a cold, as the tendency is always to grow worse until the trouble becomes deep seated and chronic, or develops into some fatal rectal disease.

While there are many pile remedies which give relief, yet there is but one which not only gives instant relief but at the same time makes a permanent cure, and that is the well known Pyramid Pile Cure.

This remedy is composed of simple, harmless, vegetable ingredients, but combine so effectively and act so promptly and thoroughly that it cures every form of piles whether itching, blind, bleeding or protruding.

In long standing cases the Pyramid Pile Cure has proven to be the only certain cure except a surgical operation, and its advantages over an operation are many, as it is painless, causes no delay or interference with daily occupation and, last but not least, is cheaper than any surgical operation could possibly be, costing but a dollar a package at any drug store.

The cases that the Pyramid Pile Cure will not reach are so few that physicians are doing away with operations for piles and depending on this cheap but effective remedy to accomplish a complete cure, and it never disappoints except in cases beyond the reach of medical skill.

The Pyramid Pile Cure is prepared by the Pyramid Drug Co. of Albion, Mich., and for sale by druggists everywhere at 50 cents per package. Each package contains a treatise on cause and cure of piles, together with testimonials from every section of this country.

Robertson presented to the fire department six copies of his address, "From the Wilderness to Spottsylvania," which he delivered at the meeting of the Loyal Legion of the United States at Cincinnati. Late last night Manager Heilbroner, of the Empire, received a telegram from the Two Old Cronies company stating that they had closed the season at Dayton, Ohio, and several of the people had secured other engagements and that they would be compelled to cancel their engagement in this city. Not wishing to disappoint the public Manager Heilbroner has secured Downie's Vaudivilles, a high class specialty company, who will arrive from Chicago this noon and fill the dates of the Cronies the balance of this week. This is the first disappointment the Empire has had this season.

Last night when the Zollinger battery met for drill several members did not show up. Their absence was inexcusable and Captain Ranke did not propose to put up with it. So he detailed a squad of men to go out and bring in the absent members. The squad, under command of a sergeant, started on its trip At the Masonic Temple one young man was found, an attentive spectator of the play, and busily engaged between acts in telling his young lady numerous nice things. Another soldier bold was found in company with a number of young ladies at a reception. They were marched to the armory and the drill proceeded. This is the second time Captain Ranke has adopted this means of enforcing discipline.

A very pretty wedding took place last Tuesday morning at 10:30 o'clock at the Catholic church in Leo, the contracting parties being Miss Josephine Andrews and Mr. Michael Costella, a prosperous young farmer of St. Joseph township The bride was attired in a handsome costume of dark blue serge with gilt trimmings, and was attended by Miss Minnie Black, who wore a gown of old rose Henrietta trimmed with ribbon. John Castella, brother of the groom, acted as best man. Immediately after the ceremony the bridal party repaired to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Fitzgerald, where a reception was given them and their immediate friends and relatives. After congratulations had been extended the guests were ushered into the dining room, where a bounteous dinner was served. A number of useful, as well as beautiful, presents were received.

STATESMEN FIGHT.

Mr. Hall Slugs Mr. Money With an Ink Bottle.

The Mississippian Cut on the Head and Carried From the Scene of Battle.

WASHINGTON, April 23.—Congressman Money, democrat, of Mississippi, senator elect from that state, and Congressman Hall, democrat, of Missouri, had a personal encounter in the committee on naval affairs today and it is said Mr. Money was hit on the head with a chair. Mr. Money and Mr. Hall are both members of the naval committee. The committee was not in session at the time of the fracas. Felix McCloskey, the messenger of the committee, who was standing at the door, heard the two members talking rather loudly. They were evidently both very much aroused. Suddenly Mr. McCloskey heard Mr. Hall say:

"I'll allow no man to call me a liar."

With the words he reached over and planted his fist in Mr. Money's face. Mr. Hall is a man of large stature, standing six feet, two inches and weighing 250 pounds. Mr. Money is also tall, but rather slender in build, and no match for his opponent physically. The blow staggered the Mississippian, and before Mr. Money could recover himself, Mr. Hall grabbed a large glass ink well from the table and hurled it at Mr. Money. The latter, already dazed, could not dodge the missle and it struck him behind the ear, cutting an ugly gash. Mr. Money fell back against the wall. At this juncture Mr. McCloskey, who had been making his way toward the irate congressmen, crowded between them and prevented further onslaughts.

Mr. Hall was with difficulty repressed from continuing the assault. Mr. Money stood against the wall faint from the loss of blood, which was streaming down his neck from the wound in his head. He was hurriedly taken to a committee room on the floor below, while Mr. Hall walked calmly along the corridor to the hall of the house. The blood from Mr. Money's wound dropped on the marble floor as he was carried down the steps. A great crowd immediately congregated and there was much excitement. The details of the cause of the encounter were hard to obtain. Mr. Hall, when seen immediately after the fight, said he did not desire to make a statement. "It was a personal matter," said he, "and I do no desire to say anything. I do not suppose Mr. Money, either, will care to make a statement. Mr. Wilson, a member of the sub committee, was present."

Mr. Money was taken to the room of the committee on claims where his wounds were dressed by a physician who happened to be in the building. There were two cuts, one just back of the ear, about an inch long and the other further down the neck, both made probably by the points of the ink well. Mr. Money, like his adversary, said he did not desire to make a statement.

STRIKE ENDED.

Glass Bosses and Blowers Make a Settlement.

Wilhelms, the Cause of the Whole Trouble, Will Not be Reinstated.

HARTFORD CITY, Ind., April 23.—The Hartford City glass workers' strike was adjusted last evening. A committee of strikers was in conference with the Hartford City Glass company all yesterday afternoon and a settlement was reached which is declared to be satisfactory to both sides. Wilhelms, the blower, will not be re-employed by the company. The refusal to reinstate Wilhelms was the cause of the strike. The factory will not resume operations for two or three days, the company having dipped out the tanks on the supposition that it would be impossible to come to terms with the members of the local union, and it will take that long to get ready to make glass.

A Muncie correspondent reports that the C. H. Over factory, at that place, with forty-five pots, closed yesterday and full settlements were made with the 400 employes, with instructions that they would not be needed until the next fire, September 1. This is a part of the 130 Indiana pots that are to go off at once. Where the others will come from cannot now be told, as it was believed that the pots would be taken equally from each factory.

Telegrams from other Indiana points at which glass factories are located report that the news of the adjustment is received with general satisfaction.

TWO GIRLS DROWNED.

Committed Suicide for Some Unknown Reason.

MENOMINEE, Wis., April 23.—Edna Varney and Emma Cunningham, aged sixteen and fifteen years respectively, committed suicide by drowning in the mill pond at Downsville, nine miles south of this city. They were missed from home yesterday and were last seen on Tuesday evening. Their bodies were found today. No cause assigned for the rash act.

TRAINMAN KILLED

In a Railroad Collision at North Vernon, Ind.

EVANSVILLE, Ind., April 23. — A Louisville and Nashville fruit train and an Evansville and Terre Haute passenger train collided at a crossing near Mount Vernon, Ind., last night. Alex Driscoll, brakeman on the latter train, was killed, while James Covington, engineer, and F. R. Thompson, brakeman on the fruit train, were seriously injured. The trains were moving slowly at the time. The baggage car of the passenger train was telescoped and two coaches thrown from the track. The Louisville and Nashville engine was turned at right angle across the rails and the track was torn up for some distance. The work of repair was begun immediately, and trains are running regularly today.

MAY LYNCH HIM.

Newport People Assume a Threatening Attitude.

Impatient at the Law's Slow Progress and Anxious to Settle With Jackson.

NEWPORT, Ky., April 23.—The court room was again crowded to its utmost capacity today at the continuation of the trial of Scott Jackson. Only about a half-dozen women were among the spectators. The Bryan family, the father, mother, sister and brothers of Pearl Bryan, were seated within the bar, near the attorneys for the prosecution. Owing to a consultation between the court and counsel, the object of which was not made known, the trial did not begin until 10:30.

Then Attorney Crawford, for the defense, moved to strike out all that portion of Mayor Caldwell's testimony which contained Walling's statements to the mayor of what the defendant, Jackson, had said to Walling. The court took the motion under advisement.

The first witness called was Dr. Jenkins, whose testimony was directed against the supposed defense that Pearl Bryan was dead before decapitation. Dr. Jenkins' testimony was entirely opposed to the theory. He said that the blood in the body of a person dying from any other cause than blood letting would coadjulate in from one to seven minutes, and that, therefore, it would have been impossible to have emptied a good body of blood, as was Pearl Bryan's, by decapitation after death. Certainly the death took place in Cincinnati and the body was afterward decapitated where it was found. The ground of the motion to exclude portions of Mayor Caldwell's testimony is that, under the law in Kentucky when two or more persons are jointly indicted they are not permitted to testify against each other. Dr. Fishback followed Dr. Jenkins and corroborated his statements on the subject of blood coadulation. He was the last witness before the noon recess.

At the noon recess an incident occurred showing the state of feeling toward the prisoner. A crowd of boys and perhaps twenty or thirty men were on the street where they could see Jackson going back to jail. One of the men, putting his hands to his mouth to form a sort of trumpet, shouted to the prisoner: "The day we hang you, Jackson." Jackson looked nervously in the direction of the voice, and a deputy sheriff made an effort to locate the man, but did not succeed. A bystander remarked: "We outsiders may attend to the hanging sooner than the court does." Such remarks as, "There goes the scoundrel," were heard among the spectators. Even in the court room mutterings were heard as the crowd was dispersing.

FIEND IN JAIL.

Roy Brockus Assaults an Aged Woman.

When His Crime Becomes Known the Citizens Prepare for a Lynching, but the Sheriff Interferes.

SOUTH BEND, Ind., April 23.—It has just leaked out that Roy Brockus, of Argos, Marshall county, Ind., was secretly placed in jail in this city about midnight on Tuesday to prevent a posible lynching. Brockus is regarded as one of the most desperate characters in Marshall county. He is charged with forcing an entrance Sunday morning into the residence of Mrs. Elizabeth Kershaw, aged seventy-five, at Argos and criminally assaulting her, after which he robbed the house, it being reported she had a large sum of money hidden about the place. Her condition, at last reports, was serious, and indignation at Argos became very great. Brockus was caught and placed in the Marshall county jail. Threats of lynching were made and it was deemed best to get the man out of the county, and he was quietly brought here. Sheriff Eberhart today said he feared Argos citizens might come here and demand the prisoner for lynching. Every precaution will be exercised.

TO DROP SECTARIAN SCHOOLS.

Indian Children Will Not be Sent to Them After 1897.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 29.—The senate yesterday disposed of the Indian question, for the present, at least, by adopting Senator Cockrell's amendment to the Indian appropriation bill. By it the secretary of the interior is given permission to contract with sectarian schools to the amount of 50 per cent. of the contracts of 1895, but only when he cannot get the Indian children schooled elsewhere. There was little discussion, and Mr. Carter made no objection to the Cockrell substitute for his amendment. The proposition, as adopted defers for one year the action proposed by the house, of terminating the contract with sectarian schools. Every democrat who voted supported the amendment, while more than two-thirds of the republicans voting opposed it, apparently preferring the house proposition, which terminates the sectarian school system at once.

WEYLER BOASTFUL.

Tells How He Will Whip the Cubans.

Spain Will be Compelled to Make Important Concessions, However, Before the War Ends.

HAVANA, April 23.—General Weyler is staking all on the present military movement. He is opposing the guerilla warfare by an almost geometric plan. In an interview with your correspondent, the general says:

"Maceo will never cross the trocha except as a prisoner. The day he attacks the trocha he will fall or be captured. It is utterly impossible for him to come eastward. I have a strong force on the whole line and also have a large party of troops between Maceo's position in the northern mountains and the trocha."

"But Maceo is on the east side of the barrier. Suppose the two brothers should attack the line from different sides at different points on the same day?"

"Ah," replied Mr. Weyler, "I have a strong force on this side, which keeps Jose Maceo's men divided into small bands and they cannot unite for such a manouver."

"Why do you not attempt to force Maceo to a decisive battle now?'

"Maceo will not stand and fight," the general answered. "I have several independent columns which keep him moving about in the hills."

"But can you not surround him? He is apparently confined to a small district."

"Well," explained General Weyler, "that would simply mean chasing Maceo through the whole province. I do not propose to have my main force drawn forward from the trocha. I want the insurgents to attack the line."

"When do you look for an attempt to force your line?"

"Never," said General Weyler. "My opinion is that Maceo knows he is in a trap at last and he will abandon his troops and escape from Cuba by water."

"You say the war will be brought to an end soon. How do you expect it to end?"

"As soon as the insurgents see that their cause is lost," General Weyler responded, "the small bands will begin to come in and give up their arms."

"Do you intend to proclaim a general amnesty."

"Yes, but not now. There must be more fighting. The enemy must be severely punished in the field and their power completely broken. Then I will offer amnesty, but not before."

MADRID, April 23.—The report that an understanding is about to be reached between Spain and the United States, in regard to Cuba, is favorably received in financial and commercial circles without stopping to inquire whether the welcome news is true or not. According to the current story, the Spanish government is to grant to Cuba, very soon, home rule, on a much broader scale than contemplated in the bills which have so far passed the cortes, and that this concession is to be supplemented by tariff reforms and a treaty of reciprocity to develope trade between the United States and the Spanish West Indies.

The Liberal says: "The Spanish mothers whose 130,000 sons are about to be exposed to the deadly climate of Cuba, during the rainy season, the Spanish taxpayers, who apprehend the consequences of the heavy cost of a prolonged civil war and, indeed, the whole nation at heart, would gladly welcome the pacification of Cuba by an early sincere concession of reforms now admitted by almost all Spanish politicians to be urgent and inevitable."

It is obviously the prevalent impression in many classes that the best course is for Spain to bow to the pressure and circumstances before it is too late and do it with good grace. What possibly may yet avert Cuban independence, by procrastination and misguided postponement of tardy concessions, may lead to a conflict with America.

On the other hand, directly the jingo papers perceive the drift of public opinion they again start an anti-American campaign. The Heraldo opened fire by affecting to lament the decay of pride, patriotism and popular enthusiasm, predicting the successive loss to Spain of her colonies through foreign influence.

The Imparcial follows suit, declaring that the nation will never allow its government to bow to American interference in favor of West Indian and home rule.

Other jingo organs imitated the Imparcial, menacing the monarchy and its government with dire consequences if President Cleveland is not told to mind his own business.

GOVERNOR M'KINLEY

Participates in a Family Gathering at Canton, Ohio.

CANTON, Ohio, April 23.—Yesterday was a happy day in the McKinley family at the old homestead here. Major McKinley and his invalid wife were present at an informal family gathering in commemoration of his mother's eighty-seventh birthday. Mother McKinley was in excellent health and spirits on the occasion, as she is generally at her advanced age, resembling in that respect her deceased husband, who was up and attending to business to within a few days of his death at the age of eighty-five, a few years ago. There were present at yesterday's gathering, Abner McKinley and daughter, Mabel, of New York; Charles Miller and wife, W. K. Miller and wife, of this city, cousins; Mrs. Osborne, of Youngstown, and Mrs. Duncan, of Cleveland, sisters of Mother McKinley. During the birthday party, special telegrams brought the news to Canton of the instructing of the Tennessee national delegates for McKinley; of the election of McKinley delegates in McKinley's old district at Alliance, and the Newark, Ohio, district; of McKinley delegates in the Peoria, Ill., district, and also news that half of the Connecticut delegates are McKinley men, as well as assurances of support from delegates elected in New York and Michigan.

CABINET RESIGNS.

Bourgeois and His Colleagues Retire

From Their Offices in France Because They Could Not Secure Relief for Madagascar.

PARIS, April 23.—The Bourgeois cabinet has resigned. The resignation was announced by the premier immediately upon the reconvening of the chamber of deputies today, and at the conclusion of the announcement M. Bourgeois and his colleagues withdrew.

According to the newspapers here, President Faure has declined to countersign the bill providing for the revision of the constitution, which the premier, M. Bourgeois, wished to submit to the chamber of deputies when that body reassembles today, as a result of the special summons following the action of the senate in postponing the vote on the Madagascar credits It is added that in view of the president's refusal to sign this bill the members of the radical left party have decided to introduce a motion denying the senate the right to be the sole interpreter of the constitution and demanding that a meeting of the national assembly be called to decide the questions in dispute.

M. Bourgeois, in announcing the resignation of the ministry, read a statement contesting the right of the senate to overthrow a ministry or to be the sole interpreter of the constitution, but, he added, in view of the impossibility of securing proper military reliefs for Madagascar, the cabinet was compelled to resign.

BULUWAYO IN DANGER.

Telegraphic Communication is Cut Off With the Outside,

And 15,000 Bloodthirsty Matabeles Lying in Wait to Pounce Upon the Citizens.

CAPE TOWN, April 23.—Telegraphic communication with the town of Buluwayo has been cut off at Fig Tree. The latter is a small place near Mangwe, southwest of Buluwayo. The break cuts off all means of communication by wire with Buluwayo and, in view of the serious condition of affairs there, the town being surrounded by 15,000 hostile Matabeles, it causes considerable anxiety. A repairing and scouting squad has been sent out from Mangwe in the direction of Fig Tree. There was no change in the situation when Buluwayo was last heard from and it is hoped the break may be due to an accident or simply be the work of a maurading band of Matabeles.

TO TEST THE ASEPTOLIN LYMPH

Cows Afflicted With Tuberculosis and Are Now to be Treated.

PITTSBURG, April 23.—Aseptolin, the lymph whose efficacy in consumption was discovered and demonstrated by Dr. Cyrus A. Edson, of New York, has been successfully used on human beings in the western penitentiary. Dr. Robert Jennings, jr., has arranged for making the first test in curing cows afflicted with tuberculosis. It is generally known that there is no more fruitful source of pulmonary disease than milk taken from cows suffering from this malady. If the attempt to stamp out tuberculosis among cattle is successful local physicians have hopes that consumption can also be stamped out. Dr. Jennings has written Dr Edson, of New York, concerning the test, and has received a reply from the famous practitioner indorsing the move and assuring Dr. Jennings of his interest until the results are known.

Novel Means Suggested to Aid a Hospital in Middletown, N. Y.

MIDDLETOWN, N. Y., April 23.—A novel proposition has been made by the Middletown-Goshen Traction company to assist Thrall hospital, in this city. The company proposes to donate one day's receipts of the electric railway to the hospital, providing the managers of the institution will select young lady conductors to collect fares on all cars during the day and evening. Young society women will accept the proposition, and hope to give the hospital a great benefit at an early date.

HON. WM. WILLIAMS

At One Time Congressman From This District.

His Death at Warsaw After a Long Illness—Was a Prominent Politician and Diplomat.

WARSAW, Ind., April 23.—The death of Hon. William Williams, which has been expected for a long time, occurred yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of his son in this city. He had been sick with dropsy for many months.

"Billy" Williams, as he was familiarly called, filled a prominent part in the political history of the state of Indiana. He came to this county in 1836, was admitted to the practice of law in 1841. In 1854 he was nominated by the whig party as a candidate for governor of the state. During the canvass he held joint discussions with his opponent, Ashbel P. Willard, in sixty five counties of the state He was defeated, but ran far ahead of his ticket. Mr. Williams took an active part in securing the location of the Pittsburg, Fort Wayne and Chicago railroad through this city and was for some years one of the directors of the road. In 1859 he was elected one of the directors of the northern Indiana prison at Michigan City. In 1863 he was appointed commander of Camp Allen at Fort Wayne, with authority to raise troops Within six weeks he had four full regiments in the field. He was then appointed paymaster for volunteer troops, with headquarters at Louisville, Ky, where he remained to the close of the war. In 1866 he was elected by the republican party to the fortieth congress, re-elected as member of the forty first and forty-second congresses and in 1872 was elected as member from the state at large of the forty-third congress He was appointed by President Garfield as minister to Paraguay and Uruguay, South America, his commission being dated the day President Garfield was shot by Guiteau, which position he held for several years. Mr. Williams was an eloquent and enthusiastic speaker and was classed by his party as one of the very best in the state. About ten years ago he undertook the task of writing a history of his life, but failing of health prevented the accomplishment of this His age was seventy-four years and eleven months.

APPORTIONMENT CASE.

Argument Begun in the Supreme Court.

INDIANAPOLIS, April 23.—The argument in the apportionment cases inaugurated by the republicans in a suit to set aside the apportionment law enacted in 1885 was begun in the supreme court yesterday. Ex-Attorney General Smith and State Senator Kern appeared for the democrats, and A. C. Harris and Miller, Winter & Elam for the republicans.

Just before the argument began Mr. Smith filed a motion to dismiss the case on the ground that the court had no jurisdiction and the argument of the democratic attorneys was directed to this point alone, it being contended that the court has decided that the apportionment act of 1885 is the only valid law and that the object of the republican parties to the suit is to leave the state without a legislative apportionment and thus stop the functions of government.

The attorneys for the republican committee contended in reply that the only thing to be considered was whether the law of 1885 is a valid apportionment law, and their argument was directed to showing that it contained the same objectionable features that constrained the court to set aside the law of 1895.

The complaint alleges ill treatment. The couple have been married twenty-eight years. Their children are leaders in social circles

ELECTED OFFICERS.

The Missionary Women of Ohio and Indiana

Who Have Been Holding a Two Days' Meeting in This City—Convention Proceedings.

The nineteenth annual session of the Anglaize branch of the Woman's Missionary association of the United Brethren church, comprising the societies in northwestern Ohio and northeastern Indiana, which has been in session at the Calvary United Brethren church in this city for the last two days, will close tonight.

At their meeting this morning the devotional services were conducted by Mrs. George Hutchinson, of Lima, after which the reports of the secretary and treasurer were read. The report of the treasurer, Mrs. Lower, showed an encouraging condition of the society, and an increase in the receipts of money for the past year over previous years.

Mrs. Mary L. Waldo, of Saratoga, Ind., then read an interesting paper on "Our Commission," showing the work of the missions abroad and the duty of the members to uphold it

The society then proceeded to the election of officers for the coming year and it resulted as follows:

President—Mrs. L. Waldo, of Saratoga, Ind

First Vice President—Mrs. C. A. Bailey, of Lockington, Ohio.

Second Vice President—Mrs. Flo Porter, of Ossian, Ind.

Secretary—Mrs. J. W. Lake, of Ossian.

Treasurer—Mrs. J. W. Lower, of Lockington.

Mrs. Lake was elected fraternal delegate to the Young People's convention, which meets at Geneva, N. Y., during the first week in June.

Mrs. Woodruff was elected fraternal delegate to the annual convention, which meets at Lima, Ohio, in September.

Mrs. C. A. Bailey was elected delegate to the meeting of the Woman's Board, at Mt. Pleasant, Pa., on May 15.

The conference will close tonight with a meeting at the church. The devotional exercises will be led by Mrs. R. W. Wilgus, of Lima. A paper on "The World for Christ" will be read by Mrs. Margaret Shives, and Ella Schenck, a returned missionary, will deliver an address on "Skepticism and Prayer in the Church."

SAYS HE WILL BOLT.

A Prominent Silver Democrat Explains His Position.

ST. LOUIS, April 23.—Senator Benjamin R. Tillman, of South Carolina, is here. At noon he visited the Merchants' exchange and made a brief address. At night the senator spoke for two hours to a crowded audience at the exposition building on "The impending crisis." In an interview he said:

"If the Chicago convention don't declare for free silver I shall walk out, and I think all the delegates from my state will do the same thing. The people are tired of gold bugs and straddle bugs and they are not going to be dictated to any more by the plutocrats of Wall street. If Mr. Bland is nominated I will certainly support him. I will try to get the South Carolina delegation for him. We want no jelly fishes. We want men who are for silver and who will stand by us. If we go to Chicago and secure a declaration for sixteen to one, and then nominate a straddle bug, it will be simply to hang out an emblem of defeat. For all the loss we would sustain by the defection of the gold bugs we would gain more by additions from free silver republicans and the populists. The time has come for a new alignment and we want it made right now."

WOMEN BARRED.

Lacked Only Eighteen Votes of Winning.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, April 23.—The proposition to admit women as lay delegates to the general conference of the Methodist Episcopal church has been defeated by a very narrow margin. The vote of the North Dakota conference was received here today. It was the last to be taken on the proposition. The total vote is shown to be 7,515 for the admission of women and 2,529 against. According to a provision of the discipline, it is necessary for a proposition to change any of the restrictive rules of the church to receive the support of three-fourths of the members of the annual conference voting for the proposition and two thirds of the members of the general conference. According to the figures issued today the women have lost by just eighteen votes.

The American Newspaper Directory has gone to the trouble to find out the newspaper having the largest circulation in each congressional district in the United States, and it backs up its statements by offering to give a reward of $100 to the first person who disproves any of them. The following is what they say of this congressional district:

"THE FORT WAYNE DAILY SENTINEL has the largest circulation accorded to any paper published in the Twelfth congressional district of Indiana, which has a population of 162,216, and the publishers of the American Newspaper Directory guarantee the accuracy of the circulation rating accorded to this paper by a reward of $100 to the first person who successfully assails it."

"OLD SLEUTH."

He Comes Back to Town From Columbia City.

He is Now in Jail—Young Woman Beastly Drunk—Police Court This Morning.

There were four prisoners in police court this morning. One was Amos Shoaff, "Old Sleuth," the man who imagines himself a detective, and who was taken in charge by the sheriff's deputies a few days ago and sent to his guardian in Whitley county for safe keeping. He came back to this city yesterday and was gathered in again by the police. He was sent to jail to be held until some disposition of his case can be determined upon.

A young woman giving her name as Jennie Smith was found on Columbia street last night beastly drunk. She said a man had made her drunk and then deserted her. She went to jail for eleven days.

James Bullison is the name given by a man who is well known in the city, especially in the neighborhood of the south railroads and shops, who was found in company with Minnie Bowers, a woman of the town, last night. The woman was sent to jail for fifteen days for prostitution and the man received a similar sentence for associating with her.

Switchboards and Other Material Purchased—One Thousand Instruments Are Ordered.

The order includes an immediate shipment of 1,000 telephones of the best pattern made by the company, ten switch boards, each holding 100 numbers and a heap of other material and and articles which the public would not understand if enumerated.

As stated in THE SENTINEL yesterday, the Home Telephone company is pushing its work rapidly and expects to have its exchange, or at least the greater part of it, ready for operation in July. The telephones which they purchased yesterday are said to be fine instruments and were selected after a careful examination of several other kinds.

UNION MEN WIN.

The Lumber Shovers' Strike Ends Suddenly.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, April 23.—For a time today it looked as if there would be another riot on the docks, but the trouble was finally averted by the union lumber shovers winning the strike. For the present at least, the trouble is over and all is serene. All boats are being unloaded by the union men. In police court today the men arrested for participating in yesterday's riot pleaded not guilty and their cases were continued.

FOR TWENTY YEARS

Brother and Sister Had Been Separated.

Miss Martha Curry at Last Hears From Her Brother, Who is in the East Indies.

A brother and sister who have been separated for twenty years and who have no recollection of ever having seen each other, have at last learned each other's whereabouts and prospects are that before long they will be reunited.

The story could be made a long one, and it would require columns to tell it in detail, but the main facts are as follows:

Twenty years ago there lived in one of the counties of Ireland a family named Curry. The father and mother died, their deaths both occurring within a short time Two little children were left, one a little girl of two years and the other an infant boy six weeks old.

The parents of the deceased Mrs. Curry took the little daughter to raise and the baby son was taken care of by the grandparents on the father's side.

Shortly afterward the family raising the daughter emigrated to America and settled near Sheldon, this county. The girl grew up and she is now Miss Martha Curry, who is employed in the McKinney house, at the Pittsburg depot.

Miss Curry never heard anything from her brother from the time when she left Ireland to come to this country with her grandparents, twenty years ago. Year after year she waited for tidings from him, but none ever came and she had lost all hope of ever hearing from him.

Yesterday a Catholic priest, a missionary who came to this city a day or two ago, stepped into the McKinnie house and inquired of Matron Mary McNamara if a girl named Martha Curry was employed in the house. Upon being told that she was he asked to see her. Miss Curry came forth and the priest handed her a letter.

It was a letter from her brother. It said to her that he was a member of the English army, with a rank of corporal, and that he was stationed in the East Indies with his regiment. He had for years pushed his search for his sister and finally was rewarded with the information that she had come to America years ago and settled with her grandparents in Indiana This led him to write the letter and start it to her.

The priest said he had met the young man, who is now twenty years of age, in the East Indies, and that the corporal had, upon learning that he was coming to this country, asked him to undertake to find his long lost sister for him. The priest consented to do so if possible, and that he has kept his promise can be seen.

Miss Curry was overjoyed at receiving the letter and will at once enter into correspondence with her brother in order to arrange for meeting him somewhere as soon as possible. The meeting will certainly be a happy one.

BOLD HOLD UP.

Tom Brooks and a Companion Attempt Robbery.

Their Victim Gets the Drop on Them and Brooks is Fatally Wounded.

EUFALIA, I. T., April 23.—Ten miles west of here, in an unsuccessful raid on the house of T. J. Brashnear, a farmer, late last night, Brashnear was seriously and Tom Brooks one of the outlaws, mortally wounded. Brooks pal escaped and is being pursued by a number of deputies. The escaped man covered six farm hands, while Brooks compelled Brashnear to reveal a trunk supposed to contain his money. Brashnear got the drop on the outlaw and shot him through the abdomen and liver. The fire was instantly returned, Brashnear receiving a bullet in the right lung. Brashnear's wound is serious, but not necessarily fatal. Brooks cannot recover. No money was secured.

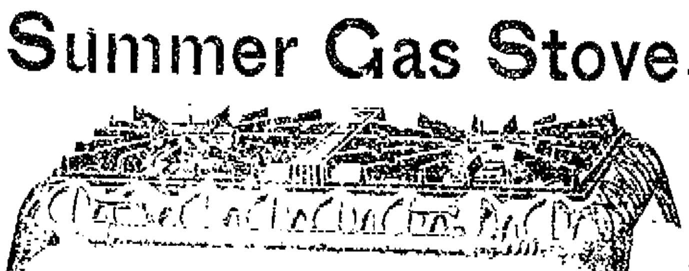

There was no game at the Lakeside ball park this afternoon on account of the rain. The Chicago Maroons are here and will play the Fort Wayne team at Lakeside Saturday. Tomorrow the Clevelands will be here. They arrive from Cincinnati tonight and will practice at Lakeside park tomorrow forenoon if the weather permits. No doubt a lot of people will go out to see them practice and a big crowd is sure to attend the game tomorrow afternoon. It is understood that the Fort Wayne battery tomorrow will be Swayne and Criger.

There is on exhibition in the show window of the People's store a large painting, a picture of an elk, which was executed by Artist Schanz, for the Fort Wayne lodge of Elks. It is a magificent piece of work, and framed it stands about seven feet high and is about four feet wide. The picture is a copy of one that was exhibited at the world's fair, in the art building, and the Elks can justly feel proud of it. The cost of the picture was something in the neighborhood of $150

CONGRESS is moving along at an easy pace. The country would feel more at ease if congress would speedily adjourn.

UNITED STATES senators come high. In addition to their salary of $5,000 apiece, the government has to pay $4,883 each for other expenses. It is more than they are worth.

IN Nebraska on arbor day a million trees were planted. That is the way to make a fertile and attractive region. More trees ought to be planted in other parts of the country continually.

THERE is only one way for the democrats of Fort Wayne to succeed in the election of a man for mayor, and that is to nominate the right kind of a candidate and then the democrats will rally as a man to his support. There was a time in Fort Wayne when anybody could be elected who happened to be the nominee of the party, but that day has gone by. Voters who love their city and want to see it stand in the front rank of progress enterprise and prosperity care more for the man than they do for the party.

IT seems strange to the average person to hear Mr. Scherer's friends say that he will enforce the law to the letter, and then see the saloonkeepers and brewers and brewery agents working day and night for his election.

THE executive committee of the Northern Indiana Editorial association will meet in this city next week, to arrange a program for the annual convention of that organization here next June. This is to be made one of the most interesting meetings yet held by this association.

The Man for Mayor.

The next mayor of Fort Wayne should be a man who is made of the right kind of stuff. He ought not to be a man who is vacilating, undetermined, lacking backbone, or who can be swerved from duty by the enemies of law and order. He should not be the tool of any political ring or any set of men who desire to secure privileges which are against the law and the best good of our city. He should not be identified or in sympathy with or under the control of those who are the enemies of law and order. He should not be a man who is bound by promises to put that class of men into the offices under him because they worked for his election. The people of Fort Wayne can not afford to elect that kind of a man for mayor, and if they do so they will make a grievous mistake. The office is one of too much importance and too many responsibilities to have such a man filling it Under the charter he will have the appointment of the city attorney, city comptroller, three members of the board of public improvements, three members of the board of public safety, and three members of the board of health, virtually controling all of these departments affecting law and order and the material interests of the city. Upon his shoulders will rest the responsibility for the good government or bad government of Fort Wayne. How necessary, then, is it that the next mayor should be a man who, knowing his duty, will do it without fear or favor, at all times and under all circumstances. He should be firm and resolute, free from political entanglements and ante election promises, and who, standing upon the platform of duty and considering a public office a public trust, will have the courage to do the right and control the city's affairs for the best good of the people. That is the sort of a man we want for mayor—and we firmly believe that such a man will be elected, on the 5th day of May.

The Test for Office.

In the selection of men for office THE SENTINEL has never believed that the candidate's particular religious belief ought to operate for or against him, and it does not think that the question of the candidate's church membership should be taken into consideration by the voter when he comes to cast his ballot at the polls. It ought to make no difference whether the man seeking the suffrages of the people is a Catholic, or Lutheran, or Baptist, or Methodist, or Presbyterian. He may be a member of either of these churches and be a fit man for the office to which he aspires. He may be a member of either of these churches and be an unfit man for the office to which he aspires. The question of which church he belongs to should cut no figure at all. There are good men in all these churches, and, we doubt not, there are bad men also. The test for office holding, however, ought to be morality and competency, and unless a candidate possesses these qualifications he surely ought not to be elevated to elective positions of trust or honor. THE SENTINEL never has favored, and it never will favor, the drawing of church denominational lines in city, county, state, or national elections. In this nation of religious liberty the different church denominations are on an equal footing under the constitution and the laws, and their members ought also to be put on the same plane when they appear on the political arena as candidates for office. If elected, will they make good officials and do their full duty? This alone should be the test.

"A hero is a successful crank, and a crank is an unsuccessful hero," says a writer with a happy turn for expression.

Mother-love is mixed with daily, hourly sacrifice. The love increases with the sacrifice it entails. The more a mother suffers and endures for her little one, the more precious it becomes. She loves it because she has labored and suffered for it. The physical organs concerned in maternity affect a woman's entire constitution to a degree only half realized by many doctors. Women are often treated specially for sick headaches, dyspepsia, melancholy, or what is supposed to be a liver or kidney affection or heart-disease, when in reality the whole trouble is with the reproductive organs. This delicate and intricate organism and the rational treatment for its peculiar ailments is a life study for the wisest physician. Probably no practitioner living has a higher repute in this special direction, than Dr. R. V. Pierce, Chief Consulting Physician of the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, of Buffalo, N. Y. His "Favorite Prescription," is the most perfect remedy ever known for all "female complaints." It goes at the source of the trouble from the inside. It is not merely temporary, external, local, bolstering or palliative. It is a cure. It directly heals and strengthens the internal organs, ... and completely ... the ... which wear out ... and mind. Its sale exceeds the combined sales of all other medicines for women.

THE RELIEF UNION

Acknowledge the Receipt of $732.50 Collected by Citizens.

The following correspondence explains itself:

FORT WAYNE, Ind , April 14, '96.
Mrs. E. H. McDonald, President Relief Union.

DEAR MADAM: I have the pleasure to hand you herewith a check on the Old National bank, of Fort Wayne, for $732 50, payable to Miss Katherine Hamilton, treasurer of the Fort Wayne Relief union. This amount of money is the net result of a collection undertaken for the benefit of the Relief union by a committee of gentlemen appointed by you in May, 1895. The total amount collected was $745 50; the sum of $15 having been expended in printing and other necessary expenses. The postage used in making the collection was defrayed by members of the committee.

You will probably be interested if I give you a brief history of the collection The committee met shortly after their appointment and organized by electing Mr E F. Yarnelle, chairman; Mr. J. D. Bond, treasurer, and the undersigned secretary. Being informed by you that the Relief union had money on hand, or pledged, sufficient for all expenses until the fall of 1895, the committee adjourned until September. In September seven of the twelve gentlemen appointed attended a committee meeting, and decided that a wise plan was to add to their number, so that the work might be divided in such a way as to be onerous on none, and also to secure the advantage which comes from interesting a large number of people in any enterprise. After several meetings the committee was increased until it included sixty gentlemen. In the meanwhile a list of subscribers, a copy of which I enclose, was prepared. These names were divided among the committee, each gentleman taking about twelve names, to whom a letter was addressed, enclosing a circular which described the work and methods of the Relief union, a copy also enclosed. The letters asking for subscriptions met with a reasonable response, and I enclose you with this a full list of the subscribers to the fund.

The committee feel quite encouraged with the results of their labors, and believe that the outcome has justified their confidence that the citizens of Fort Wayne are inclined to support really good charitable work, and that all that is necessary is that the matter shall be presented to them in a thoroughly business like way. They would respectfully suggest that the same method might be used next year with some improvements, and that each succeeding year the collection will be more easily made.

In conclusion we would express our gratitude to all those who have aided us in giving their time and money, and our heartfelt satisfaction that the work of caring for the worthy poor of Fort Wayne is in such good hands, and is being done with so much intelligence, so much kindness, and at the same time, so much wise economy.

Respectfully yours,
For the Committee,
ALEXANDER JOHNSON,
Secretary.

FORT WAYNE, Ind., April 20 1896
Alexander Johnson, secretary of committee on collection of funds for the Fort Wayne Relief union.

MY DEAR SIR.—Yours with check for $732 50, the amount collected by the committee appointed by the president of the Relief union, is at hand The board of directors ask me to express to you, and through you to the committee which you represent, their thanks for the service you have rendered them. They are gratified and encouraged to find so many new friends added to their old ones The large number of subscribers, the list of whose names you enclose, is a most hopeful sign, and proves the wisdom of the method adopted by your committee

Your suggestion that a similar plan be taken to raise the funds needed for next year, meets the hearty approval of the board of directors. They cannot hope to select another committee of gentlemen who would do for them what yours has. So fully are they convinced of this fact, that a motion to reappoint the same committee was unanimously carried, and I am instructed to announce this to you. As you have the names of those originally appointed, I need not repeat them, and will leave it with you to inform them of our action.

The directors realize their great good fortune in having on that committee those who are interested and sympathetic, and trust the distribution of these funds may be so judicious as to merit the confidence placed in them

Thanking you all once again for your kindly interest shown in both word and deed, I am, Yours very respectfully,
ELLEN R BURSLEY,
Corresponding Secretary,
Fort Wayne Relief Union.

BREAK UP A SCHOOL.

Mischievous Boys at Duluth Get an Extra Play Time.

DULUTH, Minn., April 22—There was a panic at the central high school yesterday afternoon when several muskrats made their appearance in one of the rooms and proceeded to have fun with the pupils, most of whom were young ladies The scholars jumped upon chairs and desks and kept up a constant fire of screams while the male scholars waged battle with the intruders. The battle ended in the death of the rats, but it was half an hour or more before quiet was restored The visitors had been brought in and hidden in a desk by some of the boys

LOVER KILLS HIMSELF.

A Muncie Lad on Being Jilted Commits Suicide.

MUNCIE Ind., April 23—Charles Skinner, fourteen years old, committed suicide yesterday by hanging himself from the limb of a tree by means of a swing rope. He had tied a regulation hangman's noose in the rope and after adjusting it kicked a step ladder from under him He was said to have been deeply in love with Clara Coppersmith, aged fourteen, and once threatened to kill her because she would not consent to marry him at once. He had a razor in his pocket when found and it is believed that he searched for the girl Tuesday night, intending to murder her, but she was not at home when he called.

FIGHT AGAINST BROWN.

Efforts to Force Him From His Pulpit.

He Announces That He Will Preach Next Sunday—Mrs. Cooper's War on the Pastor.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 23.—When the people of the First Congregational church meet next Wednesday night for their weekly service of prayer they will vote upon the resolution to declare the pulpit vacant. If the Rev. C. O Brown be thus summarily retired from the pastorate steps will be taken to provide for a "supply" until the trustees can elect a successor to the reverend gentleman who now occupies the pulpit If the resolution fails of adoption no one knows what the next step in the controversy will be. Some suggest an appeal to the civil courts to retire the Rev. Dr. Brown from a position which his opponents claim he has no right to fill as a discredited minister of the Congregational church Others advise in such a contingency the calling of an ecclesiastical council to depose him, an argument being made that a council ordained him and a council must depose him. Dr. Brown led the prayer meeting last night and announced that he would pass the examination.

Mrs. Sarah B. Cooper, whom Brown made his assistant pastor, and who has been leading the fight against the pastor, says that the church is declining and that the trustees must force Brown to retire. Many prominent and wealthy members continue to stand by him, however, and it is not improbable that he may start an independent church in this city. Mrs Mary A. Davidson, whose arrest by Brown for blackmail precipitated all the trouble in the church, does not attempt to conceal her gratification at the troubles of the pastor. She says she will place him behind prison bars for slander and perjury. She is preparing a lecture attacking Dr. Brown.

LEAGUE GAMES YESTERDAY

Pittsburg 8, Louisville 3; Cincinnati 7, Cleveland 4; Chicago 9, St Louis 1; Brooklyn 12, Washington 8; Baltimore 9, Boston 1; Philadelphia 14, New York 3

DISCUSSING THE LEAGUE.

Speaking of the success of several Inter-State league teams, Pickwick, a correspondent from Wheeling, says in Sporting Life:

Two difficulties present themselves as being at all serious and likely to interfere with the success of the league The first of these is the smallness of Washington and New Castle, and the attendance at these places may not be large enough to prevent a collapse early in the season; but wealthy men are said to be behind these two clubs, and so it may turn out all right.

The second and more serious trouble is the Fort Wayne club. Under the circumstances the admission of this club should never have been considered for a moment. Cleveland's farm is too strong for the Inter State league, and they will walk off with the pennant, and not half try. If it should turn out differently we shall be greatly surprised. I know if Wheeling were a side partner of a league club, say of Pittsburg, we should consider ourselves in clover.

ONE HUNDRED KILLED

In the Fight in Which Dervishes Took Part.

SUAKIM, April 23.—An Arab who has reached here from Osman Digna's camp, at Horasab, says that he saw a hundred wounded Dervishes there, and he confirms the report that over 100 of the enemy were killed in the recent fight The Dervishes are urging upon Osman Digna to withdraw to Thamiamkhor, owing to the scarcity of food. He has dispatched camel men to the Khalifa asking for instructions. Several of the subsidized Sheikhs have been disrated for failing to support the Egyptian troops

Kidnapped Children Not Found.

KOKOMO, Ind., April 23—The Kokomo officers have not yet located the little acrobats, Rosa and Arizona Wilson, four and six years old, who were abducted from Indianapolis last Saturday night, although it is believed that the little ones are secreted somewhere in this city. At 9 09 Saturday night (before the police were notified of the kidnapping) a strange man and woman, with two children answering the description of the Wilson tots, got off the Indianapolis train here. Shortly afterward the man applied for a rig at a livery barn for a fifteen mile drive, but the liveryman refused to let the team out without a driver from the barn, and it was not taken. Though every train and stable has been watched since then, no trace of the strangers has been discovered

DIAMOND CUT DIAMOND.

Two Brilliant Wits Meet, and Then the Sparks Fly.

Marshall P. Wilder dropped into the Grand Central station to call on Horace C. Du Val. The visit was a brief one, but for the few moments that they were together the conversation was so brilliant that the electric lamps began to burn mistily and took on a sallow look. A bit of the chat, culled at random, is as follows: "Hello, Marshall! How are you?"

"Oh, I am well, but I don't sleep much nights. I dreamed last night that I was dead, and the heat woke me up."

"Don't do that again. Where are you going?"

"Up to Troy. Does the Empire State stop there so I can get off?"

"Well, you can get off, you know, but that is not saying where you will alight."

"That reminds me. I was up in Herkimer the other day when the Empire State went past at about the rate of two miles a minute. Two country chaps were standing on the station platform, and one says, 'That gol darned thing don't stop for nuthin, does she?' The other ejected a stream of tobacco juice and replied: 'Naw. She don't even hesitate.'"

Then the meeting adjourned.—New York Tribune.

NO LONGER HERS.

Mrs. Belmont Said to Have Given the Marble House to Her Son.

It is said that Mrs. Oliver H. P. Belmont presented Marble House, her palatial dwelling at Newport, to her eldest son just before her second marriage and when she was still Mrs. William K. Vanderbilt.

Mrs. Belmont's son is William K. Vanderbilt, Jr. He is 18 years old and is at school in Southboro, Mass. He is to enter Yale next term. He is not particularly good looking, but is very popular among his schoolmates.

The other son, Harold, is now with his mother abroad.

But Mrs. Belmont's friends say she will be entirely impartial. She gave her $1,000,000 string of pearls to the Duchess of Marlborough as a wedding gift. This cannot be regarded as an equivalent of Marble House, however, as the value of pearls varies and they decay with time.

Mrs. Belmont has in lieu of dower right and as alimony from Mr. Vanderbilt the sum of $250,000 a year.—New York World.

SEALED UP A STUDENT.

Curious Experiment by College Professors In Studying Food Products.

Professors Atwater, Rosa and Wood of Wesleyan university, Middletown, Conn., are conducting a series of experiments to learn the value of food products. They have constructed an airtight room, a 10 foot cube, in which a student is confined. Fresh air is pumped in, and food, cooked under the direction of the professors, is conveyed through an airtight tube. The room is lighted by electricity and equipped with electricity. The temperature of the student is taken and condition noticed at frequent intervals. All food and all waste are weighed, the object being to learn the exact certain kinds of foods that make bone, flesh and blood.

The student will remain six days. So far he is doing well, eating heartily, sleeping well and devoting much time to study. The results of the experiment will be sent to Washington for scientific use.—New York Sun.

Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. THE STUDIOUS GIRL.

AN INTERESTING LETTER FROM A YOUNG LADIES' COLLEGE.

Race Between the Sexes for Education. Health Impaired by Incessant Study.

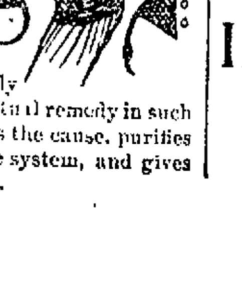

The race between the sexes for education is to-day very close.

Ambitious girls work incessantly over their studies, and are often brought to a halt, through having sacrificed the physical to the mental. Then begin those ailments that must be removed at once, or they will produce constant suffering. Headache, dizziness, faintness, slight vertigo, pains in the back and loins, irregularity, loss of sleep and appetite, nervousness and blues, with lack of confidence; these are positive signs that women's arch enemy is at hand.

The following letter was received by Mrs. Pinkham in May, one month after the young lady had first written, giving symptoms, and asking advice. She was ill and in great distress of mind, feeling she would not hold out till graduation, and the doctor had advised her to go home.
—— College, Mass.

You dear Woman:—
I should have written to you before, but you said wait a month. We are taught that the days of miracles are past. Pray what is my case? I have taken the Vegetable Compound faithfully, and obeyed you implicitly and, am free from all my ills. I was a very, very sick girl. Am keeping well up in my class, and hope to do you and myself credit at graduation. * * My gratitude cannot find expression in words. Your sincere friend, MARY ——
P. S. Some of the other girls are now using the Compound. It benefits them all.

Lydia E Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the only safe, sure and effectual remedy in such cases, as it removes the cause, purifies and invigorates the system, and gives energy and vitality.

"THE TRIUMPH OF LOVE IS HAPPY, FRUITFUL MARRIAGE."

Every Man Who Would Know the Grand Truths, the Plain Facts, the New Discoveries of Medical Science as Applied to Married Life, Who Would Atone for Past Errors and Avoid Future Pitfalls, Should Secure the Wonderful Little Book Called "Complete Manhood, and How to Attain It."

"Here at last is information from a high medical source that must work wonders with this generation of men."

The book fully describes a method by which to attain full vigor and manly power.

A method by which to end all unnatural drains on the system.

To cure nervousness, lack of self-control, despondency, &c.

To exchange a jaded and worn nature for one of brightness, buoyancy and power.

To cure forever effects of excesses, overwork, worry, &c.

To give full strength, development and tone to every portion and organ of the body.

Age no barrier. Failure Impossible. Two thousand references.

The book is purely medical and scientific, useless to curiosity seekers, invaluable to men only who need it.

A despairing man, who had applied to us, soon after wrote:

"Well, I tell you that first day is one I'll never forget. I just bubbled with joy. I wanted to hug everybody and tell them my old self had died yesterday, and my new self was born to-day. Why didn't you tell me when I first wrote that I would find it this way?"

And another thus:

Write to the ERIE MEDICAL COMPANY, Buffalo, N. Y., and ask for the little book called "COMPLETE MANHOOD." Refer to this paper, and the company promises to send the book, in sealed envelope, without any marks, and entirely free, until it is well introduced.

SUED THE COMPANY.

Herman Feltman Wants $5,000 for Injuries.

Incidents and Personal Gossip of the Office and Shop as Heard by the Reporter.

Herman Feltman, of Wanatah, Ind., has sued the Pennsylvania company for $5,000 for damages, for injuries received on the 22nd day of December, 1895, while employed as a laborer on the extra gang laying double track from Valparaiso to Winslow. Feltman fell from one of the hand cars upon which he was riding, en route home from work. There were five hand cars returning to Wanatah from work, and Feltman was riding on the second car. The second car came up to the first car and Feltman who was working the lever, standing on the southeast corner of the car, came in contact with a man named Taylor, who was working on the first car, standing on the southwest corner of the first car, the contact causing Feltman to fall from the car. The fall caused partial unconsciousness, allowing the third car to pass Feltman without causing any injury. Feltman evidently recovered consciousness long enough to attempt to arise, when he again fell, the fourth and fifth cars passing over him, causing severe injuries. The accident was the result of no negligence on the part of the company, so the latter claims.

WORK AT SWIFT PARK

John M. Barry, of Gay street, has taken a position at Swift's park, under Boss Carpenter Clarence Farley. The carpenters engaged out there had photographs of themselves taken in a groups, numbering about thirty-five men, and Mr. Barry called at THE SENTINEL office yesterday to exhibit one of the pictures. He says work is delayed at the park by the non arrival of some of the timbers needed in constructing the buildings, and as a consequence some of the men will be off duty a few days. Mr. Farley could employ fifty more men if he had the timber and other material for the buildings upon the grounds.

A large pneumatic hoisting engine has been placed in the Pittsburg machine shop and was given a thorough test this morning.

General Manager L. F. LoRee, of the Pittsburg, will pass through the city tonight, en route to Grand Rapids.

Mrs. William Seibold, wife of the employe at the electric works, is recovering from a severe illness.

Sickness in the family of Engineer S. F. Hooper keeps that gentleman from his duties on the Nickel Plate.

H. A. Cherrier, traveling passenger agent of the Missouri, Kansas and Texas road, was in the city today.

J. S Bitner has gone to Detroit to assist in putting up a gas plant for the Western Gas Construction company.

Engines 504 and 336, from the Toledo division, were taken into the Fort Wayne shops for repairs this morning.

Christian Barrett and John Feiderspiel, of the electric works, were off duty today on account of the funeral of a friend.

Nickel Plate Conductor Deahl is taking a few days' rest and his train duties are being performed by Conductor Overhulser.

G. J. Olmstead is acting as yardmaster at the Nickel Plate during the absence of J. A. Nicholson, whose wife died yesterday.

On the Richmond division of the Panhandle lines five engines are now performing the same service that eight have been doing.

Chris McLaughlin, a moulder who until recently was employed at the Bass foundry, is preparing to go to Cincinnati, where he hopes to find employment at his trade.

Charles H. Knothe and Fred Klengenstein have resigned their positions at the electric works. They will leave in a few days for Danville, Ill., where they have secured positions.

During the last week, owing to a falling off in business, twenty-seven conductors on the Chicago and Northwestern were reduced to brakemen and fifty brakemen dismissed.

The Ohio Southern has leased one thousand of its coal cars to the Erie, the former having more coal cars than it needs. Last year the Erie leased 525 of the Ohio Southern's cars.

Frank Wunderland, manager of the Electric corporation's St. Louis office, is in the city with a party who are examining our electric lighting system with a view of purchasing machinery for a similar plant.

The Baltimore and Ohio has decided to reopen its Denver office, which was closed some months ago. S. M. Shattuc, recently appointed traveling passenger agent, will also have his headquarters at Denver.

This morning carpenters removed the one story frame building adjoining Philip Graffe's place, on Lafayette street, and the ground will soon be occupied by a handsome two story brick store building, with three ground floors.

Evidently the Pittsburg machinists are afraid to tackle the painters on the diamond, as the challenge issued by the latter club a week ago has not yet been replied to. Negotiations for a game between the painters and blacksmiths are now pending.

Monday the Toledo and Ohio Central withdrew all its trains from the Union station at Columbus, Ohio, and its fourteen passenger trains all arrive and depart from its own station, being the first road which has cut loose from the Union Railway company at that point.

Machinist W. T. Marks, of the Pittsburg shops, left today for Garrett, Ind., where he will work in the Baltimore and Ohio railway shops. Those shops are overcrowded with work, having on hand at present seventy-five engines for repairs. The men are now working fourteen hours per day.

George Transue, Nickel Plate switchman, left on No. 2 this morning for Towanda, Pa., to make arrangements for the funeral of Mrs. J. A. Nicholson, wife of the yard foreman, who died yesterday morning. The remains will be shipped tomorrow and they will be buried Saturday afternoon.

Machinist W. S. Wells, of the Pittsburg shops, is in receipt of a number of fine black leghorn chickens from Eastern Ohio, which he has added to his already fine coops of chickens. Mr. Wells takes considerable interest in poultry raising and most of his spare time is devoted to that industry.

Engine 171, which has been repaired in the Stony Island shops, passed through this city today, en route to the Buffalo division, where it will haul a passenger train between that city and Conneaut. No. 170, also a Nickel Plate passenger engine on the Buffalo division, is now in the shops for repairs.

The Pittsburg shops are being equipped with a new fire alarm system. An electric gong is located in the round house office and boxes located in a dozen different places throughout the shop are connected by wire with it. When the gong rings the clerk has but to look at the dial to tell just where the fire is located. He then directs the firemen.

Some time ago the western roads adopted a rule that they would not take into consideration any application for reduced rates until within sixty days before the date on which the meeting is to be held. Yesterday they were asked to make an exception in favor of a convention of Indiana schools but they quickly voted down the proposition and declared that they would under no circumstances make any exceptions to the rule.

VALIANT JACK CHINN.

Famous as a Horseman and Handy With His Knife.

Colonel Jack Chinn, the man who recently had the temerity to charge, publicly and over his own signature, that Governor Bradley of Kentucky is a coward of the basest brand, is one of those picturesque characters who make politics in the blue grass region an exciting and often a fatal game. Some editor from the safe vantage of distance has intimated that Colonel Chinn is a bad man only as indicated by his name. If that editor lived in Kentucky, this would be about the last mistake of the kind that he would have a chance to make.

The colonel has a national reputation as a horse breeder and trainer. For three generations the Chinns have figured in turf history, and every racing man in the country knows Colonel Jack. His fame as a fighter is equally great. The prospect of a personal encounter is the only thing that will lure him from the race track or stable. When the war broke out, he swung into the saddle behind Morgan and became one of that celebrated band of raiders. The taste for spilling blood that he then acquired he has never quite outgrown. His exploits have been many and lurid, but perhaps the most sensational occurred during a race meeting in Chicago. A lifetime enemy of Chinn had given out that he was in Chicago "for the purpose of pulling off a race or two and killing Jack Chinn." The two first saw each other while driving in opposite directions on a crowded boulevard. Both made a simultaneous movement for the hip pocket, and for a minute or two the air was full of bullets. Nobody was hurt, however, and by the time their six shooters were empty they were out of range.

But the bowie knife and not the revolver is the colonel's favorite weapon. He carries one constantly in his front trousers pocket. The blade can be shut up like a pocketknife, but when a spring is pressed it flies open and locks. If Governor Bradley or any of his friends had regarded the colonel's epithet, that bowie might have played an important part in the subsequent proceedings.

SUCCESSFUL BUSINESS WOMAN.

Miss McLaughlin, President of the National Association of Woman Stenographers.

The "Queen of the Stenographers" is the somewhat fanciful title which Miss Netta McLaughlin of Chicago has earned. She is, in fact, not really a queen, but the president of the National Association of Women Stenographers. Her career as a business woman has been phenomenally successful. Miss McLaughlin was born in Kansas, and after graduating from a normal school at the age of 16 set about making her own living by teaching school. Her first class was in the primary grade, where she taught a class of 100 6-year-olds. She was rapidly promoted until she became a teacher in the normal school.

MISS NETTA M'LAUGHLIN.

She took up the study of shorthand, mastered it in six weeks and completed her course by doing 100 words a minute.

She then obtained an appointment as enrolling clerk in the Kansas senate and did such satisfactory work that the next session she was made chief of the enrolling department, the highest office a woman can hold in that state.

Miss McLaughlin was next appointed commissioner of the United States court of claims, in which position she issued subpœnas, administered oaths to witnesses and took depositions. Her work was largely among the Indians, and it was trying, but remunerative. Four years ago Miss McLaughlin went to Chicago, where she went to work on a medical journal of which she is now the editor. Although she does no shorthand work now, she takes an interest in it, and enthusiastically recommends it to self dependent young women as a stepping stone to something better. She knows how to save money as well as how to earn it, and she has a considerable sum invested in real estate in Chicago. She began at the age of 20 by buying a house and lot while earning a salary of but $5 a month.

Miss McLaughlin is a tall, well built young woman and is always ready to give a word of hope and encouragement to disheartened girls. Although a woman of business, she dresses as well and with as good taste as women who have more time and thought to give to such matters.

In Self Defense.

"So you accompanied your wife to the play, after all?"

"Yes. I happened to think that if I didn't she would tell me all about it when she came home."—Chicago Record.

EN ROUTE HOME.

Minister Willis Bids Farewell to Hawaii.

His Departure Welcomed by the Government at Honolulu, Where Mr. Willis Was Not Popular.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 23.—The steamer Australia this morning brings the following:

"HONOLULU, April 16.—United States Minister Willis and family left here for San Francisco today. The refusal of the American minister to observe Hawaiian independence day on January 17 last caused this government to lay the matter before Secretary of State Olney, through Minister Hatch. It has been an open secret here since January that the social relations between Minister Willis and the Hawaiian government have not been cordial. It is stated that none of the officials of the government were invited to be present at Washington's birthday celebration at the American legation.

"The United States steamer Petrel arrived April 13, sixteen days from Yokohama. The Concord arrived from the same port this morning. Both vessels will coal here and then depart for Mare Island Navy yard."

John W. White went to Chicago this morning.

MERCURIAL POISON

Is the result of the usual treatment of blood disorders. The system is filled with Mercury and Potash remedies—more to be dreaded than the disease—and in a short while is in a far worse condition than before. The common result is for which S.S.S. is the most reliable cure. A few bottles will afford relief where all else has failed.

I suffered from a severe attack of Mercurial Rheumatism, my arms and legs being swollen to twice their natural size, causing the most excruciating pains. I spent hundreds of dollars without relief, but after taking a few bottles of SSS I improved rapidly and am now a well man, completely cured. I can heartily recommend it to any one suffering from this painful disease. W. F. DALEY, Brooklyn Elevated R. R.

IMPORTANT TO SUFFERERS.

HOW YOU MAY OBTAIN A LASTING CURE FROM PILES.

No Surgical Operation, No Pain, Trifling Expense. A Simple, Harmless Remedy, But It Does the Work.

There are some people who have piles as frequently and regularly as other people have colds.

Any little bowel trouble will bring them on, any extra exertion, as in lifting, will produce them, and in fact will often appear without any apparent provocation. Piles, however, are much more serious than colds, as the tendency is always to grow worse until the trouble becomes deep seated and chronic, or develops into some fatal rectal disease.

While there are many pile remedies which give relief, yet there is but one which not only gives instant relief but at the same time makes a permanent cure, and that is the well known Pyramid Pile Cure.

This remedy is composed of simple, harmless, vegetable ingredients, but combine so effectively and act so promptly and thoroughly that it cures every form of piles whether itching, blind, bleeding or protruding.

In long standing cases the Pyramid Pile Cure has proven to be the only cure except a surgical operation, and its advantages over an operation are many, as it is painless, causes no decay or interference with daily occupation and, last but not least, is cheaper than any surgical operation could possibly be, costing but a dollar a package at any drug store.

The cases that the Pyramid Pile Cure will not reach are so few that physicians are doing away with operations for piles and depending on this cheap but effective remedy to accomplish a complete cure, and it never disappoints except in cases beyond the reach of medical skill.

The Pyramid Pile Cure is prepared by the Pyramid Drug Co. of Albion, Mich., and for sale by druggists everywhere at 50 cents per package. Each package contains a treatise on cause and cure of piles, together with testimonials from every section of this country.

STATESMEN FIGHT.

Mr. Hall Slugs Mr. Money With an Ink Bottle.

The Mississippian Cut on the Head and Carried From the Scene of Battle.

WASHINGTON, April 23.—Congressman Money, democrat, of Mississippi, senator elect from that state, and Congressman Hall, democrat, of Missouri, had a personal encounter in the committee on naval affairs today and it is said Mr. Money was hit on the head with a chair. Mr. Money and Mr. Hall are both members of the naval committee. The committee was not in session at the time of the fracas. Felix McCloskey, the messenger of the committee, who was standing at the door, heard the two members talking rather loudly. They were evidently both very much aroused. Suddenly Mr. McCloskey heard Mr. Hall say:

"I'll allow no man to call me a liar."

With the words he reached over and planted his fist in Mr. Money's face. Mr. Hall is a man of large stature, standing six feet, two inches and weighing 250 pounds. Mr. Money is also tall, but rather slender in build, and no match for his opponent physically. The blow staggered the Mississippian, and before Mr. Money could recover himself, Mr. Hall grabbed a large glass ink well from the table and hurled it at Mr. Money. The latter, already dazed, could not dodge the missile and it struck him behind the ear, cutting an ugly gash. Mr. Money fell back against the wall. At this juncture Mr. McCloskey, who had been making his way toward the irate congressmen, crowded between them and prevented further onslaughts.

Mr. Hall was with difficulty repressed from continuing the assault. Mr. Money stood against the wall faint from the loss of blood, which was streaming down his neck from the wound in his head. He was hurriedly taken to a committee room on the floor below, while Mr. Hall walked calmly along the corridor to the hall of the house. The blood from Mr. Money's wound dropped on the marble floor as he was carried down the steps. A great crowd immediately congregated and there was much excitement. The details of the cause of the encounter were hard to obtain. Mr. Hall, when seen immediately after the fight, said he did not desire to make a statement. "It was a personal matter," said he, "and I do no desire to say anything. I do not suppose Mr. Money, either, will care to make a statement. Mr. Wilson, a member of the sub committee, was present."

Mr. Money was taken to the room of the committee on claims where his wounds were dressed by a physician who happened to be in the building. There were two cuts, one just back of the ear, about an inch long and the other further down the neck, both made probably by the points of the ink well. Mr. Money, like his adversary, said he did not desire to make a statement.

STRIKE ENDED.

Glass Bosses and Blowers Make a Settlement.

Wilhelms, the Cause of the Whole Trouble, Will Not be Reinstated.

HARTFORD CITY, Ind., April 23.—The Hartford City glass workers' strike was adjusted last evening. A committee of strikers was in conference with the Hartford City Glass company all yesterday afternoon and a settlement was reached which is declared to be satisfactory to both sides. Wilhelms, the blower, will not be re-employed by the company. The refusal to reinstate Wilhelms was the cause of the strike. The factory will not resume operations for two or three days, the company having dipped out the tanks on the supposition that it would be impossible to come to terms with the members of the local union, and it will take that long to get ready to make glass.

A Muncie correspondent reports that the C. H. Over factory, at that place, with forty-five pots, closed yesterday and full settlements were made with the 400 employes, with instructions that they would not be needed until the next fire, September 1. This is a part of the 130 Indiana pots that are to go off at once. Where the others will come from cannot now be told, as it was believed that the pots would be taken equally from each factory.

Telegrams from other Indiana points at which glass factories are located report that the news of the adjustment is received with general satisfaction.

TWO GIRLS DROWNED.

Committed Suicide for Some Unknown Reason.

MENOMINEE, Wis., April 23.—Edna Varney and Emma Cunningham, aged sixteen and fifteen years respectively, committed suicide by drowning in the mill pond at Downsville, nine miles south of this city. They were missed from home yesterday and were last seen on Tuesday evening. Their bodies were found today. No cause assigned for the rash act.

TRAINMAN KILLED

EVANSVILLE, Ind., April 23. — A Louisville and Nashville fruit train and an Evansville and Terre Haute passenger train collided at a crossing near Mount Vernon, Ind., last night. Alex Driscoll, brakeman on the latter train, was killed, while James Covington, engineer, and F. R. Thompson, brakeman on the fruit train, were seriously injured. The trains were moving slowly at the time. The baggage car of the passenger train was telescoped and two coaches thrown from the track. The Louisville and Nashville engine was turned at right angle across the rails and the track was torn up for some distance. The work of repair was begun immediately, and trains are running regularly today.

MAY LYNCH HIM.

Newport People Assume a Threatening Attitude.

Impatient at the Law's Slow Progress and Anxious to Settle With Jackson.

NEWPORT, Ky., April 23.—The court room was again crowded to its utmost capacity today at the continuation of the trial of Scott Jackson. Only about a half-dozen women were among the spectators. The Bryan family, the father, mother, sister and brothers of Pearl Bryan, were seated within the bar, near the attorneys for the prosecution. Owing to a consultation between the court and counsel, the object of which was not made known, the trial did not begin until 10:30.

Then Attorney Crawford, for the defense, moved to strike out all that portion of Mayor Caldwell's testimony which contained Walling's statements to the mayor of what the defendant, Jackson, had said to Walling. The court took the motion under advisement.

The first witness called was Dr. Jenkins, whose testimony was directed against the supposed defense that Pearl Bryan was dead before decapitation. Dr. Jenkins' testimony was entirely opposed to the theory. He said that the blood in the body of a person dying from any other cause than blood letting would coagulate in from one to seven minutes, and that, therefore, it would have been impossible to have emptied a good body of blood, as was Pearl Bryan's, by decapitation after death. Certainly the death took place in Cincinnati and the body was afterward decapitated where it was found. The ground of the motion to exclude portions of Mayor Caldwell's testimony is that, under the law in Kentucky when two or more persons are jointly indicted they are not permitted to testify against each other. Dr. Fishback followed Dr. Jenkins and corroborated his statements on the subject of blood coagulation. He was the last witness before the noon recess.

At the noon recess an incident occurred showing the state of feeling toward the prisoner. A crowd of boys and perhaps twenty or thirty men were on the street where they could see Jackson going back to jail. One of the men, putting his hands to his mouth to form a sort of trumpet, shouted to the prisoner: "The day we hang you, Jackson." Jackson looked nervously in the direction of the voice, and a deputy sheriff made an effort to locate the man, but did not succeed. A bystander remarked: "We outsiders may attend to the hanging sooner than the court does." Such remarks as, "There goes the scoundrel," were heard among the spectators. Even in the court room mutterings were heard as the crowd was dispersing.

FIEND IN JAIL.

Roy Brockus Assaults an Aged Woman.

When His Crime Becomes Known the Citizens Prepare for a Lynching, but the Sheriff Interferes.

SOUTH BEND, Ind., April 23.—It has just leaked out that Roy Brockus, of Argos, Marshall county, Ind., was secretly placed in jail in this city about midnight on Tuesday to prevent a posible lynching. Brockus is regarded as one of the most desperate characters in Marshall county. He is charged with forcing an entrance Sunday morning into the residence of Mrs. Elizabeth Kershaw, aged seventy-five, at Argos and criminally assaulting her, after which he robbed the house, it being reported she had a large sum of money hidden about the place. Her condition, at last reports, was serious, and indignation at Argos became very great. Brockus was caught and placed in the Marshall county jail. Threats of lynching were made and it was deemed best to get the man out of the county, and he was quietly brought here. Sheriff Eberhart today said he feared Argos citizens might come here and demand the prisoner for lynching. Every precaution will be exercised.

TO DROP SECTARIAN SCHOOLS.

Indian Children Will Not be Sent to Them After 1897.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 29.—The senate yesterday disposed of the Indian question, for the present, at least, by adopting Senator Cockrell's amendment to the Indian appropriation bill. By it the secretary of the interior is given permission to contract with sectarian schools to the amount of 30 per cent. of the contracts of 1895, but only when he cannot get the Indian children schooled elsewhere. There was little discussion, and Mr. Carter made no objection to the Cockrell substitute for his amendment. The proposition, as adopted defers for one year the action proposed by the house, of terminating the contract with sectarian schools. Every democrat who voted supported the amendment, while more than two-thirds of the republicans voting opposed it, apparently preferring the house proposition, which terminates the sectarian school system at once.

WEYLER BOASTFUL.

Tells How He Will Whip the Cubans.

Spain Will be Compelled to Make Important Concessions, However, Before the War Ends.

HAVANA, April 23.—General Weyler is staking all on the present military movement. He is opposing the guerrilla warfare by an almost geometric plan. In an interview with your correspondent, the general says:

"Maceo will never cross the trocha except as a prisoner. The day he attacks the trocha he will fall or be captured. It is utterly impossible for him to come eastward. I have a strong force on the whole line and also have a large party of troops between Maceo's position in the northern mountains and the trocha."

"But Maceo is on the east side of the barrier. Suppose the two brothers should attack the line from different sides at different points on the same day?"

"Ah," replied Mr. Weyler, "I have a strong force on this side, which keeps Jose Maceo's men divided into small bands and they cannot unite for such a manouver."

"Why do you not attempt to force Maceo to a decisive battle now?"

"Maceo will not stand and fight," the general answered. "I have several independent columns which keep him moving about in the hills."

"But can you not surround him? He is apparently confined to a small district."

"Well," explained General Weyler, "that would simply mean chasing Maceo through the whole province. I do not propose to have my main force drawn forward from the trocha. I want the insurgents to attack the line."

"When do you look for an attempt to force your line?"

"Never," said General Weyler. "My opinion is that Maceo knows he is in a trap at last and he will abandon his troops and escape from Cuba by water."

"You say the war will be brought to an end soon. How do you expect it to end?"

"As soon as the insurgents see that their cause is lost," General Weyler responded, "the small bands will begin to come in and give up their arms."

"Do you intend to proclaim a general amnesty."

"Yes, but not now. There must be more fighting. The enemy must be severely punished in the field and their power completely broken. Then I will offer amnesty, but not before."

MADRID, April 23.—The report that an understanding is about to be reached between Spain and the United States, in regard to Cuba, is favorably received in financial and commercial circles without stopping to inquire whether the welcome news is true or not. According to the current story, the Spanish government is to grant to Cuba, very soon, home rule, on a much broader scale than contemplated in the bills which have so far passed the cortes, and that this concession is to be supplemented by tariff reforms and a treaty of reciprocity to develope trade between the United States and the Spanish West Indies.

The Liberal says: "The Spanish mothers whose 130,000 sons are about to be exposed to the deadly climate of Cuba, during the rainy season, the Spanish taxpayers, who apprehend the consequences of the heavy cost of a prolonged civil war and, indeed, the whole nation at heart, would gladly welcome the pacification of Cuba by an early sincere concession of reforms now admitted by almost all Spanish politicians to be urgent and inevitable."

It is obviously the prevalent impression in many classes that the best course is for Spain to bow to the pressure and circumstances before it is too late and do it with good grace. What possibly may yet avert Cuban independence, by procrastination and misguided postponement of tardy concessions, may lead to a conflict with America.

On the other hand, directly the jingo papers perceive the drift of public opinion they again start an anti-American campaign. The Heraldo opened fire by affecting to lament the decay of pride, patriotism and popular enthusiasm, predicting the successive loss to Spain of her colonies through foreign influence.

The Imparcial follows suit, declaring that the nation will never allow its government to bow to American interference in favor of West Indian and home rule.

Other jingo organs imitated the Imparcial, menacing the monarchy and its government with dire consequences if President Cleveland is not told to mind his own business.

GOVERNOR M'KINLEY

Participates in a Family Gathering at Canton, Ohio.

CANTON, Ohio, April 23—Yesterday was a happy day in the McKinley family at the old homestead here. Major McKinley and his invalid wife were present at an informal family gathering in commemoration of his mother's eighty-seventh birthday. Mother McKinley was in excellent health and spirits on the occasion, as she is generally at her advanced age, resembling in that respect her deceased husband, who was up and attending to business to within a few days of his death at the age of eighty-five, a few years ago. There were present at yesterday's gathering, Abner McKinley and daughter, Mabel, of New York; Charles Miller and wife, W. K. Miller and wife, of this city, cousins; Mrs. Osborne, of Youngstown, and Mrs. Duncan, of Cleveland, sisters of Mother McKinley. During the birthday party, special telegrams brought the news to Canton of the instructing of the Tennessee national delegates for McKinley; of the election of McKinley delegates in McKinley's old district at Alliance, and the Newark, Ohio, district; of McKinley delegates in the Peoria, Ill., district, and also news that half of the Connecticut delegates are McKinley men, as well as assurances of support from delegates elected in New York and Michigan.

CABINET RESIGNS.

Bourgeois and His Colleagues Retire

From Their Offices in France Because They Could Not Secure Relief for Madagascar.

PARIS, April 23.—The Bourgeois cabinet has resigned. The resignation was announced by the premier immediately upon the reconvening of the chamber of deputies today, and at the conclusion of the announcement M. Bourgeois and his colleagues withdrew.

According to the newspapers here, President Faure has declined to countersign the bill providing for the revision of the constitution, which the premier, M. Bourgeois, wished to submit to the chamber of deputies when that body reassembles today, as a result of the special summons following the action of the senate in postponing the vote on the Madagascar credits. It is added that in view of the president's refusal to sign this bill the members of the radical left party have decided to introduce a motion denying the senate the right to be the sole interpreter of the constitution and demanding that a meeting of the national assembly be called to decide the questions in dispute.

M. Bourgeois, in announcing the resignation of the ministry, read a statement contesting the right of the senate to overthrow a ministry or to be the sole interpreter of the constitution, but, he added, in view of the impossibility of securing proper military reliefs for Madagascar, the cabinet was compelled to resign.

BULUWAYO. IN DANGER.

Telegraphic Communication is Cut Off With the Outside,

And 15,000 Bloodthirsty Matabeles Lying in Wait to Pounce Upon the Citizens.

CAPE TOWN, April 23.—Telegraphic communication with the town of Buluwayo has been cut off at Fig Tree. The latter is a small place near Mangwe, southwest of Buluwayo. The break cuts off all means of communication by wire with Buluwayo and, in view of the serious condition of affairs there, the town being surrounded by 15,000 hostile Matabeles, it causes considerable anxiety. A repairing and scouting squad has been sent out from Mangwe in the direction of Fig Tree. There was no change in the situation when Buluwayo was last heard from and it is hoped the break may be due to an accident or simply be the work of a marauding band of Matabeles.

TO TEST THE ASEPTOLIN LYMPH

Cows Afflicted With Tuberculosis and Are Now to be Treated.

PITTSBURG, April 23.—Aseptolin, the lymph whose efficacy in consumption was discovered and demonstrated by Dr. Cyrus A. Edson, of New York, has been successfully used on human beings in the western penitentiary. Dr. Robert Jennings, jr., has arranged for making the first test in curing cows afflicted with tuberculosis. It is generally known that there is no more fruitful source of pulmonary disease than milk taken from cows suffering from this malady. If the attempt to stamp out tuberculosis among cattle is successful local physicians have hopes that consumption can also be stamped out. Dr. Jennings has written Dr. Edson, of New York, concerning the test, and has received a reply from the famous practitioner indorsing the move and assuring Dr. Jennings of his interest until the results are known.

SOCIETY BELLES CONDUCTORS.

Novel Means Suggested to Aid a Hospital in Middletown, N. Y.

MIDDLETOWN, N. Y., April 23.—A novel proposition has been made by the Middletown-Goshen Traction company to assist Thrall hospital, in this city. The company proposes to donate one day's receipts of the electric railway to the hospital, providing the managers of the institution will select young lady conductors to collect fares on all cars during the day and evening. Young society women will accept the proposition, and hope to give the hospital a great benefit at an early date.

HON. WM. WILLIAMS

At One Time Congressman From This District.

His Death at Warsaw After a Long Illness—Was a Prominent Politician and Diplomat.

WARSAW, Ind., April 23.—The death of Hon. William Williams, which has been expected for a long time, occurred yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of his son in this city. He had been sick with dropsy for many months.

"Billy" Williams, as he was familiarly called, filled a prominent part in the political history of the state of Indiana. He came to this county in 1836, was admitted to the practice of law in 1841. In 1854 he was nominated by the whig party as a candidate for governor of the state. During the canvass he held joint discussions with his opponent, Ashbel P. Willard, in sixty-five counties of the state. He was defeated, but ran far ahead of his ticket. Mr. Williams took an active part in securing the location of the Pittsburg, Fort Wayne and Chicago railroad through this city and was for some years one of the directors of the road. In 1859 he was elected one of the directors of the northern Indiana prison at Michigan City. In 1863 he was appointed commander of Camp Allen at Fort Wayne, with authority to raise troops. Within six weeks he had four full regiments in the field. He was then appointed paymaster for volunteer troops, with headquarters at Louisville, Ky., where he remained to the close of the war. In 1866 he was elected by the republican party to the fortieth congress, re-elected as member of the forty first and forty-second congresses and in 1872 was elected as member from the state at large of the forty-third congress. He was appointed by President Garfield as minister to Paraguay and Uruguay, South America, his commission being dated the day President Garfield was shot by Guiteau, which position he held for several years. Mr. Williams was an eloquent and enthusiastic speaker and was classed by his party as one of the very best in the state. About ten years ago he undertook the task of writing a history of his life, but failing of health prevented the accomplishment of this. His age was seventy-four years and eleven months.

APPORTIONMENT CASE.

Argument Begun in the Supreme Court.

INDIANAPOLIS, April 23.—The argument in the apportionment cases inaugurated by the republicans in a suit to set aside the apportionment law enacted in 1885 was begun in the supreme court yesterday. Ex-Attorney General Smith and State Senator Kern appeared for the democrats, and A. C. Harris and Miller, Winter & Elam for the republicans.

Just before the argument began Mr. Smith filed a motion to dismiss the case on the ground that the court had no jurisdiction and the argument of the democratic attorneys was directed to this point alone, it being contended that the court has decided that the apportionment act of 1885 is the only valid law and that the object of the republican parties to the suit is to leave the state without a legislative apportionment and thus stop the functions of government.

The attorneys for the republican committee contended in reply that the only thing to be considered was whether the law of 1885 is a valid apportionment law, and their argument was directed to showing that it contained the same objectionable features that constrained the court to set aside the law of 1895.

A SUIT FOR DIVORCE.

The Wife Demands That All Titles be Transferred to Her.

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., April 23—Margaret Henry, wife of Patrick C. Henry, a prominent local capitalist and ex-attorney, filed suit for divorce yesterday, demanding that the title to all the property now held by him be quieted in her name. She alleges that it was acquired by means derived from her parents' estate. The defendant is also enjoined from disposing of any property, pending the settlement of the suit. The complaint alleges ill treatment. The couple have been married twenty-eight years. Their children are leaders in social circles.

Mrs. Cleveland and the children have already been installed there for two weeks past on account of the appearance of measles in the household, but all traces of the malady have now disappeared and the president goes out every afternoon to his suburban home.

ELECTED OFFICERS.

The Missionary Women of Ohio and Indiana

Who Have Been Holding a Two Days' Meeting in This City—Convention Proceedings.

The nineteenth annual session of the Anglaise branch of the Woman's Missionary association of the United Brethren church, comprising the districts in northwestern Ohio and northeastern Indiana, which has been in session at the Calvary United Brethren church in this city for the last two days, will close tonight.

At their meeting this morning the devotional services were conducted by Mrs. George Hutchinson, of Lima, after which the reports of the secretary and treasurer were read. The report of the treasurer, Mrs. Lower, showed an encouraging condition of the society, and an increase in the receipts of money for the past year over previous years.

Mrs. Mary L. Waldo, of Saratoga, Ind., then read an interesting paper on "Our Commission," showing the work of the missions abroad and the duty of the members to uphold it.

The society then proceeded to the election of officers for the coming year and it resulted as follows:

President—Mrs. L. Waldo, of Saratoga, Ind.

First Vice President—Mrs. C. A. Dailey, of Lockington, Ohio.

Second Vice President—Mrs. Flo Porter, of Cesian, Ind.

Secretary—Mrs. J. W. Lake, of Cesian.

Treasurer—Mrs. J. W. Lower, of Lockington.

Mrs. Lake was elected fraternal delegate to the Young People's convention, which meets at Geneva, N. Y., during the first week in June.

Mrs. Woodruff was elected fraternal delegate to the annual convention, which meets at Lima, Ohio, in September.

Mrs. C. A. Bailey was elected delegate to the meeting of the Woman's Board, at Mt. Pleasant, Pa., on May 15.

The conference will close tonight with a meeting at the church. The devotional exercises will be led by Mrs. R. W. Wilgus, of Lima. A paper on "The World for Christ" will be read by Mrs. Margaret Shives, and Ella Schenck, a returned missionary, will deliver an address on "Skepticism and Prayer in the Church."

SAYS HE WILL BOLT.

A Prominent Silver Democrat Explains His Position.

ST. LOUIS, April 23—Senator Benjamin R. Tillman, of South Carolina, is here. At noon he visited the Merchants' exchange and made a brief address. At night the senator spoke for two hours to a crowded audience at the exposition building on "The impending crisis." In an interview he said:

"If the Chicago convention don't declare for free silver I shall walk out, and I think all the delegates from my state will do the same thing. The people are tired of gold bugs and straddle bugs and they are not going to be dictated to any more by the plutocrats of Wall street. If Mr. Bland is nominated I will certainly support him. I will try to get the South Carolina delegation for him. We want no jelly fishes. We want men who are for silver and who will stand by us. If we go to Chicago and secure a declaration for sixteen to one, and then nominate a straddle bug, it will be simply to hang out an emblem of defeat. For all the loss we would sustain by the defection of the gold bugs we would gain more by additions from free silver republicans and the populists. The time has come for a new alignment and we want it made right now."

WOMEN BARRED.

Lacked Only Eighteen Votes of Winning.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, April 23—The proposition to admit women as lay delegates to the general conference of the Methodist Episcopal church has been defeated by a very narrow margin. The vote of the North Dakota conference was received here today. It was the last to be taken on the proposition. The total vote is shown to be 7,515 for the admission of women and 2,529 against. According to a provision of the discipline, it is necessary for a proposition to change any of the restrictive rules of the church to receive the support of three-fourths of the members of the annual conference voting for the proposition and two-thirds of the members of the general conference. According to the figures issued today the women have lost by just eighteen votes.

FOR A SHORTER DAY.

Over 500,000 Men Will Strike and Win.

PITTSBURG, Pa., April 23.—In an interview here today President Gompers, of the American Federation of Labor, stated that over 500,000 men would make a demand for a shorter day on May 1st and that most of them would get it without a struggle.

Tomorrow evening, at the Masonic Temple, Leotta, one of the finest readers before the American public today, will give an artistic rendering of tragedy and comedy, and the Temple will no doubt be crowded to hear her. She is brought her in the interest of the Y. W. C. A.

A GOOD THING FOR US.

The Oldest and Best Walks On With the Cake.

What the American Newspaper Directory, of New York, Says of "The Sentinel."

The American Newspaper Directory has gone to the trouble to find out the newspaper having the largest circulation in each congressional district in the United States, and it backs up its statements by offering to give a reward of $100 to the first person who disproves any of them. The following is what they say of this congressional district:

"THE FORT WAYNE DAILY SENTINEL has the largest circulation accorded to any paper published in the Twelfth congressional district of Indiana, which has a population of 162,216, and the publishers of the American Newspaper Directory guarantee the accuracy of the circulation rating accorded to this paper by a reward of $100 to the first person who successfully assails it."

"OLD SLEUTH."

There were four prisoners in police court this morning. One was Amos Shoaff, "Old Sleuth," the man who imagines himself a detective, and who was taken in charge by the sheriff's deputies a few days ago and sent to his guardian in Whitley county for safe keeping. He came back to this city yesterday and was gathered in again by the police. He was sent to jail to be held until some disposition of his case can be determined upon.

A young woman giving her name as Jennie Smith was found on Columbia street last night brazilly drunk. She said a man had made her drunk and then deserted her. She went to jail for eleven days.

James Bullison is the name given by a man who is well known in the city, especially in the neighborhood of the south railroads and shops, who was found in company with Minnie Bowers, a woman of the town, last night. The woman was sent to jail for fifteen days for prostitution and the man received a similar sentence for associating with her.

Switchboards and Other Material Purchased—One Thousand Instruments Are Ordered.

The contract for the telephones, switch boards and other accessories to the new exchange of the Home telephone company was awarded yesterday to the Western Telephone Construction company, of Chicago, whose president, J. E. Keelyn, was in the city for that purpose.

The order includes an immediate shipment of 1,000 telephones of the best pattern made by the company, ten switch boards, each holding 100 numbers and a heap of other material and and articles which the public would not understand if enumerated.

As stated in THE SENTINEL yesterday, the Home Telephone company is pushing its work rapidly and expects to have its exchange, or at least the greater part of it, ready for operation in July. The telephones which they purchased yesterday are said to be fine instruments and were selected after a careful examination of several other kinds.

UNION MEN WIN.

The Lumber Shovers' Strike Ends Suddenly.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, April 23.—For a time today it looked as if there would be another riot on the docks, but the trouble was finally averted by the union lumber shovers winning the strike. For the present, at least, the trouble is over and all is serene. All boats are being unloaded by the union men. In police court today the men arrested for participating in yesterday's riot pleaded not guilty and their cases were continued.

FOR TWENTY YEARS

Brother and Sister Had Been Separated.

Miss Martha Curry at Last Hears From Her Brother, Who is in the East Indies.

A brother and sister who have been separated for twenty years and who have no recollection of ever having seen each other, have at last learned each other's whereabouts and prospects are that before long they will be reunited.

The story could be made a long one, and it would require columns to tell it in detail, but the main facts are as follows:

Twenty years ago there lived in one of the counties of Ireland a family named Curry. The father and mother died, their deaths both occurring within a short time. Two little children were left, one a little girl of two years and the other an infant boy six weeks old.

The parents of the deceased Mrs. Curry took the little daughter to raise and the baby son was taken care of by the grandparents on the father's side.

Shortly afterward the family raising the daughter emigrated to America and settled near Sheldon, this county. The girl grew up and she is now Miss Martha Curry, who is employed in the McKinney house, at the Pittsburg depot.

Miss Curry never heard anything from her brother from the time when she left Ireland to come to this country with her grandparents, twenty years ago. Year after year she waited for tidings from him, but none ever came and she had lost all hope of ever hearing from him.

Yesterday a Catholic priest, a missionary who came to this city a day or two ago, stepped into the McKinnie house and inquired of Matron Mary McNamara if a girl named Martha Curry was employed in the house. Upon being told that she was he asked to see her. Miss Curry came forth and the priest handed her a letter.

It was a letter from her brother. It said to her that he was a member of the English army, with a rank of corporal, and that he was stationed in the East Indies with his regiment. He had for years pushed his search for his sister and finally was rewarded with the information that she had come to America years ago and settled with her grandparents in Indiana. This led him to write the letter and start it to her.

The priest said he had met the young man, who is now twenty years of age, in the East Indies, and that the corporal had, upon learning that he was coming to this country, asked him to undertake to find his long lost sister for him. The priest consented to do so if possible, and that he has kept his promise can be seen.

Miss Curry was overjoyed at receiving the letter and will at once enter into correspondence with her brother in order to arrange for meeting him somewhere as soon as possible. The meeting will certainly be a happy one.

BOLD HOLD UP.

Tom Brooks and a Companion Attempt Robbery.

Their Victim Gets the Drop on Them and Brooks is Fatally Wounded.

EUFAULA, I. T., April 21—Ten miles west of here, in an unsuccessful raid on the house of T. J. Brashnear, a farmer, late last night, Brashnear was seriously and Tom Brooks one of the outlaws, mortally wounded. Brooks pal escaped and is being pursued by a number of deputies. The escaped man covered six farm hands, while Brooks compelled Brashnear to reveal a trunk supposed to contain his money. Brashnear got the drop on the outlaw and shot him through the abdomen and liver. The fire was instantly returned, Brashnear receiving a bullet in the right lung. Brashnear's wound is serious, but not necessarily fatal. Brooks cannot recover. No money was secured.

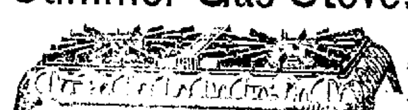

There was no game at the Lakeside ball park this afternoon on account of the rain. The Chicago Maroons are here and will play the Fort Wayne team at Lakeside Saturday. Tomorrow the Clevelands will be here. They arrive from Cincinnati tonight and will practice at Lakeside park tomorrow forenoon if the weather permits. No doubt a lot of people will go out to see them practice and a big crowd is sure to attend the game tomorrow afternoon. It is understood that the Fort Wayne battery tomorrow will be Swayne and Criger.

There is on exhibition in the show window of the Peoples store a large painting, a picture of an elk, which was executed by Artist Schanz, for the Fort Wayne lodge of Elks. It is a magificent piece of work, and framed it stands about seven feet high and is about four feet wide. The picture is a copy of one that was exhibited at the world's fair, in the art building, and the Elks can justly feel proud of it. The cost of the picture was something in the neighborhood of $150.

SONS OF FREEDOM—Regular meeting.
LODGES—Summit City Lodge No 36, A. O. U. W.; Harmony Lodge, No. 19, I. O. O. F.; Wayne Tent No.51, K. O. T. M.; Liberty Council No 3, Order of Chosen Friends; Fort Wayne Temple, No. 1, Order of Pericleans.

CONGRESS is moving along at an easy pace. The country would feel more at ease if congress would speedily adjourn.

UNITED STATES senators come high. In addition to their salary of $5,000 apiece, the government has to pay $1,885 each for other expenses. It is more than they are worth.

IN Nebraska on arbor day a million trees were planted. That is the way to make a fertile and attractive region. More trees ought to be planted in other parts of the country continually.

THERE is only one way for the democrats of Fort Wayne to succeed in the election of a man for mayor, and that is to nominate the right kind of a candidate and then the democrats will rally as a man to his support. There was a time in Fort Wayne when anybody could be elected who happened to be the nominee of the party, but that day has gone by. Voters who love their city and want to see it stand in the front rank of progress enterprise and prosperity care more for the man than they do for the party.

IT seems strange to the average person to hear Mr. Scherer's friends say that he will enforce the law to the letter, and then see the saloonkeepers and brewers and brewery agents working day and night for his election.

THE executive committee of the Northern Indiana Editorial association will meet in this city next week, to arrange a program for the annual convention of that organization here next June. This is to be made one of the most interesting meetings yet held by this association.

The Man for Mayor.

The next mayor of Fort Wayne should be a man who is made of the right kind of stuff. He ought not to be a man who is vacilating, undetermined, lacking backbone, or who can be swerved from duty by the enemies of law and order. He should not be the tool of any political ring or any set of men who desire to secure privileges which are against the law and the best good of our city. He should not be identified or in sympathy with or under the control of those who are the enemies of law and order. He should not be a man who is bound by promises to put that class of men into the offices under him because they worked for his election. The people of Fort Wayne can not afford to elect that kind of a man for mayor, and if they do so they will make a grievous mistake. The office is one of too much importance and too many responsibilities to have such a man filling it. Under the charter he will have the appointment of the city attorney, city comptroller, three members of the board of public improvements, three members of the board of public safety, and three members of the board of health, virtually controling all of these departments affecting law and order and the material interests of the city. Upon his shoulders will rest the responsibility for the good government or bad government of Fort Wayne. How necessary, then, is it that the next mayor should be a man who, knowing his duty, will do it without fear or favor, at all times and under all circumstances. He should be firm and resolute, free from political entanglements and ante election promises, and who, standing upon the platform of duty and considering a public office a public trust, will have the courage to do the right and control the city's affairs for the best good of the people. That is the sort of a man we want for mayor—and we firmly believe that such a man will be elected, on the 5th day of May.

The Test for Office.

In the selection of men for office THE SENTINEL has never believed that the candidate's particular religious belief ought to operate for or against him, and it does not think that the question of the candidate's church membership should be taken into consideration by the voter when he comes to cast his ballot at the polls. It ought to make no difference whether the man seeking the suffrages of the people is a Catholic, or Lutheran, or Baptist, or Methodist, or Presbyterian. He may be a member of either of these churches and be a fit man for the office to which he aspires. He may be a member of either of these churches and be an unfit man for the office to which he aspires. The question of which church he belongs to should cut no figure at all. There are good men in all these churches, and, we doubt not there are bad men also. The test for office holding, however, ought to be morality and competency, and unless a candidate possesses these qualifications he surely ought not to be elevated to elective positions of trust or honor. THE SENTINEL never has favored, and it never will favor, the drawing of church denominational lines in city, county, state, or national elections. In this nation of religious liberty the different church denominations are on an equal footing under the constitution and the laws, and their members ought also to be put on the same plane when they appear on the political arena as candidates for office. If elected, will they make good officials and do their full duty? This alone should be the test.

"A hero is a successful crank, and a crank is an unsuccessful hero," says a writer with a happy turn for expression.

THE RELIEF UNION

Acknowledge the Receipt of $732.50 Collected by Citizens.

The following correspondence explains itself:

FORT WAYNE, Ind., April 14 '96
Mrs. J. H. McDonald, President Relief Union:

DEAR MADAM:—I have the pleasure to hand you herewith a check on the Old National bank, of Fort Wayne, for $732.50, payable to Miss Katherine Hamilton, treasurer of the Fort Wayne Relief union. This amount of money is the net result of a collection undertaken for the benefit of the Relief union by a committee of gentlemen appointed by you in May, 1895. The total amount collected was $745.50; the sum of $13 having been expended in printing and other necessary expenses. The postage used in making the collection was defrayed by members of the committee.

You will probably be interested if I give you a brief history of the collection. The committee met shortly after their appointment and organized by electing Mr. E. F. Yarnelle, chairman; Mr. J. D. Bond, treasurer, and the undersigned secretary. Being informed by you that the Relief union had money on hand, or pledged, sufficient for all expenses until the fall of 1895, the committee adjourned until September. In September seven of the twelve gentlemen appointed attended a committee meeting, and decided that a wise plan was to add to their number, so that the work might be divided in such a way as to be onerous on none, and also to secure the advantage which comes from interesting a large number of people in any enterprise. After several meetings the committee was increased until it included sixty gentlemen. In the meanwhile a list of subscribers, a copy of which I enclose, was prepared. These names were divided among the committee, each gentleman taking about twelve names, to whom a letter was addressed, enclosing a circular which described the work and methods of the Relief union, a copy also enclosed. The letters asking for subscriptions met with a reasonable response, and I enclose you with this a full list of the subscribers to the fund.

The committee feel quite encouraged with the results of their labors, and believe that the outcome has justified their confidence that the citizens of Fort Wayne are inclined to support really good charitable work, and that all that is necessary is that the matter shall be presented to them in a thoroughly business like way. They would respectfully suggest that the same method might be used next year with some improvements, and that each succeeding year the collection will be more easily made.

In conclusion we would express our gratitude to all those who have aided us in giving their time and money, and our heartfelt satisfaction that the work of caring for the worthy poor of Fort Wayne is in such good hands, and is being done with so much intelligence, so much kindness, and at the same time, so much wise economy.

Respectfully yours,
For the Committee,
ALEXANDER JOHNSON,
Secretary.

FORT WAYNE, Ind., April 20 1896
Alexander Johnson, secretary of committee on collection of funds for the Fort Wayne Relief union.

MY DEAR SIR:—Yours with check for $732.50, the amount collected by the committee appointed by the president of the Relief union, is at hand. The board of directors ask me to express to you, and through you to the committee which you represent, their thanks for the service you have rendered them. They are gratified and encouraged to find so many new friends added to their old ones. The large number of subscribers, the list of whose names you enclose, is a most hopeful sign, and proves the wisdom of the method adopted by your committee.

Your suggestion that a similar plan be taken to raise the funds needed for next year, meets the hearty approval of the board of directors. They cannot hope to select another committee of gentlemen who would do for them what yours has. So fully are they convinced of this fact, that a motion to reappoint the same committee was unanimously carried, and I am instructed to announce this to you. As you have the names of those originally appointed, I need not repeat them, and will leave it with you to inform them of our action.

The directors realize their great good fortune in having on that committee those who are interested and sympathetic, and trust the distribution of these funds may be so judicious as to merit the confidence placed in them.

Thanking you all once again for your kindly interest shown in both word and deed, I am, Yours very respectfully,
ELIAS R. BUSSLEY,
Corresponding Secretary,
Fort Wayne Relief Union.

BREAK UP A SCHOOL.

Mischievous Boys of Duluth Get an Extra Play Time.

DULUTH, Minn., April 22.—There was a panic at the central high school yesterday afternoon when several muskrats made their appearance in one of the rooms and proceeded to have fun with the pupils, most of whom were young ladies. The scholars jumped upon chairs and desks and kept up a constant fire of screams while the male scholars waged battle with the intruders. The battle ended in the death of the rats, but it was half an hour or more before quiet was restored. The visitors had been brought in and hidden in a desk by some of the boys.

LOVER KILLS HIMSELF

A Muncie Lad on Being Jilted Commits Suicide.

MUNCIE, Ind., April 23.—Charles Skinner, fourteen years old, committed suicide yesterday by hanging himself from the limb of a tree by means of a swing rope. He tied a regulation hangman's noose in the rope and after adjusting it kicked a step ladder from under him. He was said to have been deeply in love with Cora Coppernoll, aged fourteen and once threatened to kill her because she would not consent to marry him at once. He had a razor in his pocket when found and it is believed that he searched for the girl Tuesday night, intending to murder her, but she was not at home when he called.

FIGHT AGAINST BROWN.

Efforts to Force Him From His Pulpit.

He Announces That He Will Preach Next Sunday—Mrs. Cooper's War on the Pastor.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 23.—When the people of the First Congregational church meet next Wednesday night for their weekly service of prayer they will vote upon the resolution to declare the pulpit vacant. If the Rev. C. O. Brown be thus summarily retired from the pastorate steps will be taken to provide for a "supply" until the trustees can elect a successor to the reverend gentleman who now occupies the pulpit. If the resolution fails of adoption no one knows what the next step in the controversy will be. Some suggest an appeal to the civil courts to retire the Rev. Dr. Brown from a position which his opponents claim he has no right to fill as a discredited minister of the Congregational church. Others advise in such a contingency the calling of an ecclesiastical council to depose him, an argument being made that a council ordained him and a council must depose him. Dr. Brown led the prayer meeting last night and announced that he would pass the examination.

Mrs. Sarah B. Cooper, whom Brown made his assistant pastor, and who has been leading the fight against the pastor, says that the church is declining and that the trustees must force Brown to retire. Many prominent and wealthy members continue to stand by him, however, and it is not improbable that he may start an independent church in this city. Mrs. Mary A. Davidson, whose arrest by Brown for blackmail precipitated all the trouble in the church, does not attempt to conceal her gratification at the troubles of the pastor. She says she will place him behind prison bars for slander and perjury. She is preparing a lecture attacking Dr. Brown.

Newspaper Divulges a Secret.

MUNCIE, Ind., April 23.—Arthur Andrews, a son of Druggist George H. Andrews, was married ten days ago to Miss Myrtle Thomas at the bride's home in Findlay, Ohio. The groom is eighteen years old and was too bashful to tell his parents until a Findlay newspaper arrived giving the information. In the meantime the bride, who is at the home of her parents, has been urging her husband to tell the story and send for her. She will soon be sent for.

LEAGUE GAMES YESTERDAY

Pittsburg 8, Louisville 3; Cincinnati 7, Cleveland 4; Chicago 9, St. Louis 4; Brooklyn 12, Washington 8; Baltimore 9; Boston 1; Philadelphia 14, New York 3.

DISCUSSING THE LEAGUE.

Speaking of the success of several Inter-State league teams, Pickwick, a correspondent from Wheeling, says in Sporting Life:

Two difficulties present themselves as being at all serious and likely to interfere with the success of the league. The first of these is the smallness of Washington and New Castle, and the attendance at these places may not be large enough to prevent a collapse early in the season; but wealthy men are said to be behind these two clubs, and so it may turn out all right.

The second and more serious trouble is the Fort Wayne club. Under the circumstances the admission of this club should never have been considered for a moment. Cleveland's farm is too strong for the Inter State league, and they will walk off with the pennant, and not half try. If it should turn out differently we shall be greatly surprised. I know if Wheeling were a side partner of a league club, say of Pittsburg, we should consider ourselves in clover.

ONE HUNDRED KILLED

In the Fight in Which Dervishes Took Part.

SUAKIM, April 23.—An Arab who has reached here from Osman Digna's camp, at Horasab, says that he saw a hundred wounded Dervishes there, and he confirms the report that over 100 of the enemy were killed in the recent fight. The Dervishes are urging upon Osman Digna to withdraw to Thamjamkhor, owing to the scarcity of food. He has dispatched camel men to the Khalifa asking for instructions. Several of the subsidized Sheikhs have been degraded for failing to support the Egyptian troops.

Kidnapped Children Not Found.

KOKOMO, Ind., April 23.—The Kokomo officers have not yet located the little acrobats, Rosa and Arizona Wilson, four and six years old, who were abducted from Indianapolis last Saturday night, although it is believed that the little ones are secreted somewhere in this city. At 9:09 Saturday night (before the police were notified of the kidnapping) a strange man and woman, with two children answering the description of the Wilson tots, got off the Indianapolis train here. Shortly afterward the man applied for a rig at a livery barn for a fifteen mile drive, but the liveryman refused to let the team out without a driver from the barn, and it was not taken. Though every train and stable has been watched since then, no trace of the strangers has been discovered.

DIAMOND CUT DIAMOND.

Two Brilliant Wits Meet, and Then the Sparks Fly.

Marshall P. Wilder dropped into the Grand Central station to call on Horace C. Du Val. The visit was a brief one, but for the few moments that they were together the conversation was so brilliant that the electric lamps began to burn mistily and took on a sallow look. A bit of the chat, culled at random, is as follows: "Hello, Marshall! How are you?"

"Oh, I am well, but I don't sleep much nights. I dreamed last night that I was dead, and the heat woke me up."

"Don't do that again. Where are you going?"

"Up to Troy. Does the Empire State stop there so I can get off?"

"Well, you can get off, you know, but that is not saying where you will alight."

"That reminds me. I was up in Herkimer the other day when the Empire State went past at about the rate of two miles a minute. Two country chaps were standing on the station platform, and one says, 'That gol darned thing don't stop for nuthin, does she?' The other ejected a stream of tobacco juice and replied: 'Naw. She don't even hesitate.'"

Then the meeting adjourned.—New York Tribune.

NO LONGER HERS.

Mrs. Belmont Said to Have Given the Marble House to Her Son.

It is said that Mrs. Oliver H. P. Belmont presented Marble House, her palatial dwelling at Newport, to her eldest son just before her second marriage and when she was still Mrs. William K. Vanderbilt.

Mrs. Belmont's son is William K. Vanderbilt, Jr. He is 18 years old and is at school in Southboro, Mass. He is to enter Yale next term. He is not particularly good looking, but is very popular among his schoolmates.

The other son, Harold, is now with his mother abroad.

But Mrs. Belmont's friends say she will be entirely impartial. She gave her $1,000,000 string of pearls to the Duchess of Marlborough as a wedding gift. This cannot be regarded as an equivalent of Marble House, however, as the value of pearls varies and they decay with time.

Mrs. Belmont has in lieu of dower right and as alimony from Mr. Vanderbilt the sum of $250,000 a year.—New York World.

SEALED UP A STUDENT.

Curious Experiment by College Professors in Studying Food Products.

Professors Atwater, Rosa and Wood of Wesleyan university, Middletown, Conn., are conducting a series of experiments to learn the value of food products. They have constructed an airtight room, a 10 foot cube, in which a student is confined. Fresh air is pumped in; and food, cooked under the direction of the professors, is conveyed through an airtight tube. The room is lighted by electricity and equipped with electricity. The temperature of the student is taken and condition noticed at frequent intervals. All food and all waste are weighed, the object being to learn the exact certain kinds of foods that make bone, flesh and blood.

The student will remain six days. So far he is doing well, eating heartily, sleeping well and devoting much time to study. The results of the experiment will be sent to Washington for scientific use.—New York Sun.

THE STUDIOUS GIRL.

AN INTERESTING LETTER FROM A YOUNG LADIES' COLLEGE.

Race Between the Sexes for Education. Health Impaired by Incessant Study.

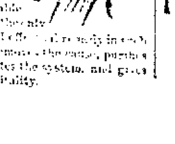

The race between the sexes for education is to-day very close.

Ambitious girls work incessantly over their studies, and are often brought to a halt, through having sacrificed the physical to the mental. Then begin those ailments that must be removed at once, or they will produce constant suffering. Headache, dizziness, faintness, slight vertigo, pains in the back and loins, irregularity, loss of sleep and appetite, nervousness and blues, with lack of confidence; these are positive signs that woman's arch enemy is at hand. The following letter was received by Mrs. Pinkham in May, one month after the young lady had first written, giving symptoms, and asking advice. She was ill and in great distress of mind, feeling she would not hold out till graduation, and the doctor had advised her to go home.
——— College, Mass.

You dear Woman:—

I should have written to you before, but you said wait a month. We are taught that the days of miracles are past. Pray what is my case? I have taken the Vegetable Compound faithfully, and obeyed you implicitly and am free from all my ills. I was a very, very sick girl. Am keeping well up in my class, and hope to do you and myself credit at graduation. * * My gratitude cannot find expression in words. Your sincere friend, MARY ———

P. S. Some of the other girls are now using the Compound. It benefits them all.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the only [illegible] as it removes the cause, purifies and invigorates the system, and gives energy and vitality.

"THE TRIUMPH OF LOVE IS HAPPY, FRUITFUL MARRIAGE."

Every Man Who Would Know the Grand Truths, the Plain Facts, the New Discoveries of Medical Science as Applied to Married Life, Who Would Atone for Past Errors and Avoid Future Pitfalls, Should Secure the Wonderful Little Book Called "Complete Manhood, and How to Attain It."

"Here at last is information from a high medical source that must work wonders with this generation of men."

The book fully describes a method by which to attain full vigor and manly power.

A method by which to end all unnatural drains on the system.

To cure nervousness, lack of self-control, despondency, &c.

To exchange a jaded and worn nature for one of brightness, buoyancy and power.

To cure forever effects of excesses, overwork, worry, &c.

To give full strength, development and tone to every portion and organ of the body.

Age no barrier. Failure impossible. Two thousand references.

The book is purely medical and scientific, useless to curiosity seekers, invaluable to men only who need it.

A despairing man, who had applied to us, soon after wrote:

"Well, I tell you that first day is one I'll never forget. I just bubbled with joy. I wanted to hug everybody and tell them my old self had died yesterday, and my new self was born today. Why didn't you tell me when I first wrote that I would find it this way?"

And another thus:

Write to the ERIE MEDICAL COMPANY, Buffalo, N. Y., and ask for the little book called "COMPLETE MANHOOD." Refer to this paper, and the company promises to send the book, in sealed envelope, without any marks, and entirely free, until it is well introduced.

SUED THE COMPANY.

Herman Feltman Wants $5,000 for Injuries.

Incidents and Personal Gossip of the Office and Shop as Heard by the Reporter.

Herman Feltman, of Wanatah, Ind., has sued the Pennsylvania company for $5,000 for damages, for injuries received on the 22nd day of December, 1895, while employed as a laborer on the extra gang laying double track from Valparaiso to Winslow. Feltman fell from one of the hand cars upon which he was riding, en route home from work. There were five hand cars returning to Wanatah from work, and Feltman was riding on the second car. The second car came up to the first car and Feltman who was working the lever, standing on the southeast corner of the car, came in contact with a man named Taylor, who was working on the first car, standing on the southwest corner of the first car, the contact causing Feltman to fall from the car. The fall caused partial unconsciousness, allowing the third car to pass Feltman without causing any injury. Feltman evidently recovered consciousness long enough to attempt to arise, when he again fell, the fourth and fifth cars passing over him, causing severe injuries. The accident was the result of no negligence on the part of the company, so the latter claims.

WORK AT SWIFT PARK.

John M. Barry, of Gay street, has taken a position at Swift's park, under Boss Carpenter Clarence Farley. The carpenters engaged out there had photographs of themselves taken in a groups, numbering about thirty-five men, and Mr. Barry called at THE SENTINEL office yesterday to exhibit one of the pictures. He says work is delayed at the park by the non arrival of some of the timbers needed in constructing the buildings, and as a consequence some of the men will be off duty a few days. Mr. Farley could employ fifty more men if he had the timber and other material for the buildings upon the grounds.

MINOR NOTES.

Trainmaster C. E. Wells, of the Wabash, was in the city over night.

E. N. Matthews has been appointed purchasing agent of the Ohio Southern road.

Joseph Carry, of the Pittsburg blacksmith shop, is taking a few days' recreation.

George Bowser, Pittsburg fireman, is off duty on account of the death of a relative.

O. N. Guildin, of the Western Gas Construction company, went to Chicago this morning.

Dr. E. F. Wagner, of the Pennsylvania relief department, has returned from Cleveland.

Gus. Regge, janitor at the Pittsburg depot, has gone to Toledo to visit his uncle a few days.

Frank Magers has resigned at the electric works and resumed his old position with Hon. P. A. Randall.

August Ralbert, Charles Fissell, Frank Driftmeyer and Frank Hensell, of the electric works, are taking a vacation.

A large pneumatic hoisting engine has been placed in the Pittsburg machine shop and was given a thorough test this morning.

General Manager L. F. Loree, of the Pittsburg, will pass through the city tonight en route to Grand Rapids.

Mrs. William Seibold, wife of the employe at the electric works, is recovering from a severe illness.

Sickness in the family of Engineer S. F. Hooper keeps that gentleman from his duties on the Nickel Plate.

H. A. Cherrier, traveling passenger agent of the Missouri, Kansas and Texas road, was in the city today.

J. S. Bitner has gone to Detroit to assist in putting up a gas plant for the Western Gas Construction company.

Engines 504 and 356, from the Toledo division were taken into the Fort Wayne shops for repairs this morning.

Christian Barrett and John Feiderspiel, of the electric works, were off duty today on account of the funeral of a friend.

Nickel Plate Conductor Deahl is taking a few days' rest and his train duties are being performed by Conductor Overhulser.

G. J. Olmstead is acting as yardmaster at the Nickel Plate during the absence of J. A. Nicholson, whose wife died yesterday.

On the Richmond division of the Panhandle lines five engines are now performing the same service that eight have been doing.

The Wabash last night inaugurated its Pullman compartment service between St. Louis and Kansas City. The cars are of the latest and most elegant design.

Chris McLaughlin, a moulder who until recently was employed at the Bass foundry, is preparing to go to Cincinnati, where he hopes to find employment at his trade.

Charles H. Knothe and Fred Klengenstein have resigned their positions at the electric works. They will leave in a few days for Danville, Ill., where they have secured positions.

During the last week, owing to a falling off in business, twenty-seven conductors on the Chicago and Northwestern were reduced to brakemen and fifty brakemen dismissed.

The Ohio Southern has leased one thousand of its coal cars to the Erie, the former having more coal cars than it needs. Last year the Erie leased 525 of the Ohio Southern's cars.

Frank Wunderland, manager of the Electric corporation's St. Louis office, is in the city with a party who are examining our electric lighting system with a view of purchasing machinery for a similar plant.

The Baltimore and Ohio has decided to reopen its Denver office, which was closed some months ago. S. M. Shattuc, recently appointed traveling passenger agent, will also have his headquarters at Denver.

This morning carpenters removed the one story frame building adjoining Philip Graffe's place, on Lafayette street, and the ground will soon be occupied by a handsome two story brick store building, with three ground floors.

Evidently the Pittsburg machinists are afraid to tackle the painters on the diamond, as the challenge issued by the latter club a week ago has not yet been replied to. Negotiations for a game between the painters and blacksmiths are now pending.

Monday the Toledo and Ohio Central withdrew all its trains from the Union station at Columbus, Ohio, and its fourteen passenger trains all arrive and depart from its own station, being the first road which has cut loose from the Union Railway company at that point.

Machinist W. T. Marks, of the Pittsburg shops, left today for Garrett, Ind., where he will work in the Baltimore and Ohio railway shops. Those shops are overcrowded with work, having on hand at present seventy five engines for repairs. The men are now working fourteen hours per day.

George Transue, Nickel Plate switchman, left on No. 2 this morning for Towanda, Pa., to make arrangements for the funeral of Mrs. J. A. Nicholson, wife of the yard foreman, who died yesterday morning. The remains will be shipped tomorrow and they will be buried Saturday afternoon.

Machinist W. S. Wells, of the Pittsburg shops, is in receipt of a number of fine black leghorn chickens from Eastern Ohio, which he has added to his already fine coops of chickens. Mr. Wells takes considerable interest in poultry raising and most of his spare time is devoted to that industry.

Engine 171, which has been repaired in the Stony Island shops, passed through this city today, en route to the Buffalo division, where it will haul a passenger train between that city and Conneaut. No. 170, also a Nickel Plate passenger engine on the Buffalo division, is now in the shops for repairs.

The Pittsburg shops are being equipped with a new fire alarm system. An electric gong is located in the round house office and boxes located in a dozen different places throughout the shop are connected by wire with it. When the gong rings the clerk has but to look at the dial to tell just where the fire is located. He then directs the firemen.

Some time ago the western roads adopted a rule that they would not take into consideration any application for reduced rates until within sixty days before the date on which the meeting is to be held. Yesterday they were asked to make an exception in favor of a convention of Indiana schools but they quickly voted down the proposition and declared that they would under no circumstances make any exceptions to the rule.

VALIANT JACK CHINN.

Famous as a Horseman and Handy With His Knife.

Colonel Jack Chinn, the man who recently had the temerity to charge, publicly and over his own signature, that Governor Bradley of Kentucky is a coward of the basest brand, is one of those picturesque characters who make politics in the blue grass region an exciting and often a fatal game. Some editor from the safe vantage of distance has intimated that Colonel Chinn is a bad man only as indicated by his name. If that editor lived in Kentucky, this would be about the last mistake of the kind that he would have a chance to make.

The colonel has a national reputation as a horse breeder and trainer. For three generations the Chinns have figured in turf history, and every racing man in the country knows Colonel Jack. His fame as a fighter is equally great. The prospect of a personal encounter is the only thing that will lure him from the race track or stable. When the war broke out, he swung into the saddle behind Morgan and became one of that celebrated band of raiders. The taste for spilling blood that he then acquired he has never quite outgrown. His exploits have been many and lurid, but perhaps the most sensational occurred during a race meeting in Chicago. A lifetime enemy of Chinn had given out that he was in Chicago "for the purpose of pulling off a race or two and killing Jack Chinn." The two first saw each other while driving in opposite directions on a crowded boulevard. Both made a simultaneous movement for the hip pocket, and for a minute or two the air was full of bullets. Nobody was hurt, however, and by the time their six shooters were empty they were out of range.

But the bowie knife and not the revolver is the colonel's favorite weapon. He carries one constantly in his front trousers pocket. The blade can be shut up like a pocketknife, but when a spring is pressed it flies open and locks. If Governor Bradley or any of his friends had [illegible] altogether, that bowie might have played an important part in the [illegible] proceedings.

SUCCESSFUL BUSINESS WOMAN.

Miss Nettie McLaughlin, President of the National Association of Woman Stenographers.

The "Queen of the Stenographers" is the somewhat fanciful title which Miss Nettie McLaughlin of Chicago has earned. She is, in fact, not really a queen, but the president of the National Association of Women Stenographers. Her career as a business woman has been phenomenally successful. Miss McLaughlin was born in Kansas, and after graduating from a normal school at the age of 16 set about making her own living by teaching school. Her first class was in the primary grade, where she taught a class of 100 6-year-olds. She was rapidly promoted until she became a teacher in the normal school. She took up the study of shorthand, mastered it in six weeks and completed her course by doing 100 words a minute.

MISS NETTIE M'LAUGHLIN.

She then obtained an appointment as enrolling clerk in the Kansas senate and did such satisfactory work that the next session she was made chief of the enrolling department, the highest office a woman can hold in that state.

Miss McLaughlin was next appointed commissioner of the United States court of claims, in which position she issued subpoenas, administered oaths to witnesses and took depositions. Her work was largely among the Indians, and it was trying, but remunerative. Four years ago Miss McLaughlin went to Chicago, where she went to work on a medical journal of which she is now the editor. Although she does no shorthand work now, she takes an interest in it, and [illegible] recommends it to [illegible] as a stepping stone to something better. She knows how to save money as well as how to earn it, and she has accumulated considerable [illegible] in real estate in Chicago. [illegible] by [illegible] while earning a salary [illegible]

EN ROUTE HOME.

Minister Willis Bids Farewell to Hawaii.

His Departure Welcomed by the Government at Honolulu, Where Mr. Willis Was Not Popular.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 27.—The steamer Australia this morning brings the following:

"HONOLULU, April 16.—United States Minister Willis and family left here for San Francisco today. The refusal of the American minister to observe Hawaiian independence day on January 17 last caused this government to lay the matter before Secretary of State Olney, through Minister Hatch. It has been an open secret here since January that the social relations between Minister Willis and the Hawaiian government have not been cordial. It is stated that none of the officials of the government were invited to be present at Washington's birthday celebration at the American legation.

"The United States steamer Petrel arrived April 13, sixteen days from Yokohama. The Concord arrived from the same port this morning. Both vessels will coal here and then depart for Mare Island Navy yard."

John W. White went to Chicago this morning.

for which S.S.S. is the most reliable cure. A few bottles will afford relief where all else has failed.

I suffered from a severe attack of Mercurial Rheumatism, my arms and legs being swollen to twice their natural size, causing the most excruciating pains. At the Masonic Temple one young man was found, an attentive spectator of the play, and busily engaged between acts in telling his young lady numerous nice things. Another soldier bold was found in company with a number of young ladies at a reception. They were marched to the armory and the drill proceeded. This is the second time Captain Ranke has adopted this means of enforcing discipline.
